MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Credentials are required for access to the press box for all University of Alabama home baseball games. All media credential requests must be made in writing at least 24 hours in advance, to Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office. Credentials may be picked up at the ticket window to the left on the main gates on the third base side 90 minutes prior to first pitch. There is no reserved media parking for Alabama baseball games. Those covering the Tide should park in the lots surrounding The Joe.

INTERVIEWS
Alabama head coach Greg Goff and student-athletes are available for interviews in person or, with prior arrangement, by telephone. Alabama practices will be at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Practices are open to members of the media on selected days, with Goff and student-athletes available prior to the start of practice, depending upon class schedules, travel or other plans. Media wishing to attend practice or arrange an interview with a student-athlete should contact Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office 24 hours in advance. On game days, only postgame interviews are allowed.

GAME SERVICES
Complete team and individual statistics (box score), quotes and a running play-by-play are provided to the media who cover the Crimson Tide at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Copies of stats, game notes, media guides and roster sheets are available in the press box. Postgame interviews with Alabama head coach Greg Goff and Alabama student-athletes will take place in the media room located on the first base side following a 10-minute cooling off period upon the conclusion of the games. Ample electrical outlets and wireless internet access is available inside the pressbox and field level media room for media to write and file their story.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Visiting teams wishing to broadcast games from Sewell-Thomas Stadium are provided access to one phone line. The calls are charged to the visiting radio network. Should an additional line be required, broadcasters must arrange their own hookup through The University of Alabama Telecommunications Office at (205) 348-6300. Visiting radio broadcasters must call in advance or have their media relations office notify Alabama that they will be broadcasting the game and will require credentials.

INTERNET
Information about University of Alabama athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. Information on the site includes rosters, schedules, results, stats, box scores and biographical information. In addition, members of the media can access helpful information on covering the Tide and credential requests. From the website, Tide fans also can find a link to listen to Alabama games live via the internet and follow home game action via live stats. Wireless internet is available throughout Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

SOCIAL MEDIA
News, video and features on the Alabama baseball team also can be found on Facebook, Twitter and YouTube by searching for AlabamaBSB.

UA VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION
The University of Alabama, through the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN), offers an FTP site that provides up-to-date interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the baseball team is featured in this package. Please call the Athletics Communications Office for more details at 205-348-6084. During the spring, the baseball team's progress will be covered on "Crimson Tide This Week," a 30-minute weekly regional sports show.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION
Links to download footage for broadcast television use only will be emailed when footage is made available. Throughout the season, video features on the baseball team will be made available on RollTide.com. For questions, please contact Christopher England by e-mail at cengland@ia.ua.edu.

RADIO NETWORK
Alabama baseball can be heard on the radio by tuning into one of the 30-plus stations state-wide that are part of the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). Chris Stewart will provide play-by-play for the 17th straight season with a combination of color analysts to be used throughout the year.

ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell is entering his second year as president of The University of Alabama. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered, comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bell has broad administrative experience and is a 30-year veteran of higher education. He previously served at UA for 16 years where he founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center.

"Our students continue to excel and represent the Capstone in the classroom, as well as in the laboratory, on the stage and on the field in ways that make us proud," Bell said near the end of the spring 2016 semester. "This is certainly an exciting time to be here at The University of Alabama."

Immediately prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. During Dr. Bell's tenure there and earlier at the University of Kansas where he served as dean of its College of Engineering, those institutions opened new facilities, and student recruitment, retention and success were emphasized.

First joining UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the UA College of Engineering's department of mechanical engineering, Dr. Bell was named department head nine years later.

With research interest in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in alternative fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies.

Dr. Bell was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching in 1988. He was presented the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the UA College of Engineering in 2001, and, in 2005, he received the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

He and his wife, Susan, have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen, and one granddaughter.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

From the architecture to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama. With more than 200 academic majors, outstanding honors programs and a championship athletic tradition, UA offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Our undergraduate, graduate and professional programs give students the opportunity to interact with nationally ranked faculty and our distance learning programs offer learning that fits your life.

Life on the UA campus is defined by opportunities. Students who want to get involved can join one of more than 500 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, volunteer in the community, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

Students, faculty, staff and visitors can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. UA's fine museums house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

The Ferguson Center, UA's student union, was renovated and expanded in 2014, providing more space for student activities and a larger food court and Supply Store. The new Fresh Food Company as well as Lakeside and Burke dining halls offer a wide variety of food service options.

The Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space. An additional recreation and student center is conveniently located for residential students between the Presidential 1 and II residence halls.

Whatever your interests, you will find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

- Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 37,655 for fall 2016. This year's freshman class represents the most academically talented in the school's 185-year history. More than 40 percent of UA's 7,559-member class scored 30 or higher on the ACT. More than 31 percent of the freshman class had a high school grade point average of 4.0 or higher.
- The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities nationwide in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars with more than 600 currently enrolled.
- Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 43rd among public universities in the 2016 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:
- The School of Law is ranked 28th among all law schools in the nation (10th among public universities), spring 2016.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 18th nationally in the latest rankings for library schools, spring 2013.
- University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Forty-seven UA students have been named Goldwater Scholars, including two in 2016. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars, 16 Truman Scholars, 32 Hollings Scholars and six Boren Scholars.
- Thirty UA faculty have received NSF CAREER Awards, the nation's most prestigious recognition of top-performing young scientists, in disciplines ranging from nanoscience and engineering to biological sciences.
- Dr. Samantha Hansen, UA assistant professor of geological sciences, is one of many faculty recognized nationally for research. Hansen is one of 102 scientists who received the 2014 Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. government on science and engineering professionals in the early stages of their independent research careers.
- Seven University of Alabama graduates have accepted Fulbright awards to study and teach abroad during 2016-2017.
- U.S. News and World Report ranks The University of Alabama's Manderson Online Business Master's programs 12th in the nation, up from 75th the previous year. The rankings are based on level of accreditation, faculty credentials, admissions selectivity, reputation for excellence among peer institutions and academic and career support services offered to students.
- Public Accounting Report's 2014 rankings place UA's Culverhouse School of Accountancy's undergraduate and master's programs eighth in the nation and the doctoral program 12th.
- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation six times.

BILL BATTLE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle is in his fourth year as Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama. Since taking the job on March 22, 2013, (succeeding the late Mal Moore), Battle has not only maintained Alabama's unparalleled athletics success, but also has placed increased focus on the primary mission of Alabama Athletics: to recruit and develop student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in intercollegiate athletics, to educate and prepare student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in life after graduation, and to accomplish both with honor and integrity.

Battle took the job as Director of Athletics at Alabama after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently hallmarked by innovation and foresight. During Battle's tenure, Alabama has produced two NCAA team national championships (men's golf in 2014 and football in 2015); 10 SEC team championships in six different sports (two in football, two in gymnastics, one in men's golf, women's golf, softball and women's tennis); 16 NCAA individual champions; 27 NCAA Elite Award winners; 34 Academic All-Americans (leading the nation in that category in both 2013-14 and 2014-15); and 16 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship awardees.

Battle's vision has impacted the Alabama Athletics Department in numerous ways, particularly in revitalized fundraising efforts that directly enhance the daily experience of every Crimson Tide student-athlete. Battle spearheaded the redevelopment of Alabama's historic baseball facility, Sewell-Thomas Stadium, which opened in February, 2016. He also has led the drive for numerous other facility and departmental improvements, including a new rowing facility and plans for a new aquatics facility.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961, and was a three-year starter. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, Battle came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle earned a bachelor's degree in Biology (minor in Psychology) from The University of Alabama in 1963 and a master's degree in Education from The University of Oklahoma in 1964. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s. Alabama won three national championships in the decade (1961, 1964 and 1965).

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Battle embarked on a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties. The companies were sold to IMG in 2007, but he continued as chairman of CLC and consultant to IMG until March of 2013 when he was called back to Alabama.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, Bill was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. He is slated to be inducted into the Sporting Goods Industry Hall of Fame in May of 2016. He currently serves on the boards of the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife, Mary, is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas' School of Nursing with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Master of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. For many years Mary worked in the healthcare industry both in the clinical setting and for healthcare corporations that developed and managed physician provider networks including the development of strategically significant relationships with payors and business and industry.

Mary currently serves on the Arthritis Foundation National Board of Directors and is the chairperson of the Arthritis Foundation Leadership Council for the Birmingham market. She is also a member of the Volunteer Engagement Task Team for the Arthritis Foundation. In addition, Mary is an inaugural member of the UAB School of Medicine Board of Visitors and is active in fundraising activities for UAB that support research projects targeting more effective treatment for rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles are part of UAB's Stem Cell Institute Board and are both active in their support of UAB's Department of Rheumatology. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

Dr. Jeff Laubenthal (left) and Emeel Salem (right) won the H. Boyd McWhorter Southeastern Conference Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award and a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship. It is the highest academic honor presented by the SEC office. Laubenthal also earned the 2014 Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Award for his accomplishments since leaving the University, which includes earning his medical degree from UAB and then becoming a specialist in sports and family medicine at the West Alabama Family Practice Center in Tuscaloosa.

Alabama baseball has produced nine CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 1972, including first-team honorees Jeff Laubenthal (1993), Lance Cormier (right) (2002) and Emeel Salem (2006 & 2007).

The Crimson Tide has produced 13 CoSIDA Academic All-District IV selections since 1993, including two-time honorees Lance Cormier (2001 & 2002), Beau Hearod (left) (2002 & 2003) and Emeel Salem (2006 & 2007).

Emeel Salem is the most decorated student in Alabama baseball history, receiving more than $25,000 in post-graduate scholarships. In addition to the SEC Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, Salem received the 2007 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award and was a two-time SEC Baseball Scholar Athlete of the Year (2006 & 2007).

ALABAMA BASEBALL

SEWELL-THOMAS STADIUM

Sewell-Thomas Stadium, also known as "The Joe," has been home to Alabama baseball since 1948. The Crimson Tide opened the original Joe in 1948, playing a doubleheader against the Bradley Braves. In 2016, "The New Joe" and a new era of Alabama baseball began at Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19 – OPENING NIGHT AT THE NEW JOE

Sewell-Thomas Stadium was a hit with fans during its inaugural season in 2016, selling out nine times and welcoming 6,000-plus fans on six separate occasions.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium, located slightly off Paul W. Bryant Drive in the Alabama Athletics Complex, has played host to six NCAA Regionals, six SEC playoff series and a pair of exhibition games with the New York Yankees in 1978 and 1984. The Crimson Tide used its home-field advantage to secure a berth in the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999, winning 13 straight postseason home games in one of the most dominant runs in Crimson Tide baseball history.

Alabama has compiled a 1,213-519-2 (.700) all-time record at Sewell-Thomas Stadium since its move to the current site in 1948. The Tide returned home in 2016 after spending the previous season in Hoover while the stadium underwent a complete renovation. Crimson Tide fans flooded to the new stadium in its inaugural season with 133,720 total fans coming through the gates for 31 home matchups. The Tide averaged over 4,000 fans for the first time since 2009 and sold out on nine different occasions.

Over the last 20 years, Alabama has owned a significant advantage at home, winning 76 of its 98 SEC series. Since 1995, Alabama has won 40 of 53 home series against SEC Eastern Division teams.

A series loss to No. 3 Florida at the end of the 2010 season snapped a 14-series win streak versus Eastern Division schools that dated back to 2005. After going 1-2 in series against SEC Western Division opponents in 2013, Alabama has won 28 of 43 home series, including 14 of its past 20 against the West. Alabama enters the 2016 season having won 34 of its past 45 SEC home series inside Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

In 2009, Alabama earned a home series win over top-ranked Georgia, adding to the Tide's success at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. The Crimson Tide has won seven of its eight series against the nation's top-ranked team since 1985, with four of those series wins coming in Tuscaloosa. Alabama owns home series wins over Miami (Fla.) (1985), LSU (2007), Mississippi State (2006) and Georgia (2009) when those teams were ranked No. 1 in the country.

The Tide baseball team has been a success at the gate as well, drawing nearly 2,900,000 fans since the first stadium expansion in 1991. Over the past 23 years, Alabama has attracted 2,896,676 fans in 800 all-time openings in Tuscaloosa. The Tide ranked second nationally in attendance from 1999-2002 and set a school record with 211,331 fans during the 2000 season, when every home game was sold out.

Frank Thomas Field opened on March 26, 1948, as a 2,000-seat facility that attracted many overflow crowds in the 1950s and 1960s under Coach Tilden "Happy" Campbell and Coach Joe Sewell. The inaugural game was played on March 26, 1948, with the Crimson Tide beating the Bradley Braves 5-2 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Pitcher Clarence Flack delivered the first pitch at 2:02 p.m., on that afternoon in the Tide's new baseball home. Dick Dill recorded the first hit at Thomas Field and Jack Rutledge swatted the first home run. Flack was the winning pitcher that afternoon for the Tide. Marvin Blemker also pitched and earned what is known today as a save.

Since the inaugural game in 1948, Sewell-Thomas Stadium has seen plenty of changes. The stadium was renamed Sewell-Thomas Field in 1978, honoring former Alabama football and baseball standout and Major League Hall of Famer Joe Sewell. Alabama played the first night game in school history on March 14, 1981, with a 13-8 victory over Western Kentucky.

The ballpark underwent three major renovations prior to 2015, including changes in 1991, 1999 and 2001.

The original grandstand was completed in time for the 1991 season and was completed by Wesley Construction of Talladega, Ala.

N.C. Morgan Construction of Tuscaloosa was responsible for a $4-million expansion project, which was completed prior to the 2001 season, involved extending the grandstand down the right field line.

The players and coaches likewise benefited from the 2001 renovations. The Crimson Tide moved into its spacious clubhouse in 2001. The expansion also included three indoor batting cages and pitching machines, a meeting room, training room, equipment room and coaches offices.

The renovation and rebuilding to construct what is now known as "The New Joe" began in the fall of 2014 and lasted until January of 2016, completing a $42.5 million project originally envisioned by the late Mal Moore. The project saved only the cement foundation, while a complete overhaul was made to the rest of the facility. Along with the stadium, a state-of-the-art indoor hitting facility was added along the left field line to allow for practice both in the cages and on the mound at any time of the year.

Alabama's new home returned the right field terrace for fans, while adding chairbacks around the entire lower bowl. On the upper concourse, suites along with the .525 Club hosts Alabama baseball fans. The .525 Club, similar to the Zone at Bryant-Denny Stadium, was built in honor of the most decorated player in Crimson Tide baseball history, David Magadan. Magadan was Alabama's only Golden Spikes Award winner, which is the premiere award given to college baseball's top player. In that 1983 season, Magadan batted .525, an NCAA record that still stands today.

Along with fan amenities, players are now treated to a new lounge, team meeting room and locker room.

The new Sewell-Thomas Stadium has cemented itself as one of the premiere baseball facilities not only in the Southeastern Conference, but across all of college baseball. The University of Alabama's rich athletic tradition began with baseball, and a renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium will once again elevate the program to the forefront of athletics at the Capstone.

Goff Era Begins

Head coach Greg Goff was officially introduced as The University of Alabama's 31st head coach on Friday, June 17, 2016. Known for his ability to turn around programs, Goff's teams have only suffered four losing campaigns and have posted 40-plus wins in six of his 13 years as a head coach, including four such seasons in the last five years. The Crimson Tide's newest head coach brings over 400 career wins and a near .600 winning percentage to Tuscaloosa.

Head Coach — First Year

DELTA STATE, 1996

University of Alabama Director of Athletics Bill Battle announced Greg Goff as head baseball coach at The University of Alabama on Friday, June 17, 2016. Goff became the 31st head coach in Alabama baseball history and arrived in Tuscaloosa with a resume flooded with success. Over his 13 years as a head coach, Goff's teams have posted 40-plus wins six times, including four such seasons in his last five years, and those teams have appeared in an NCAA Regional in two of the last three seasons.

Last season, Goff was named the America Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA)/Diamond South Central Region Coach of the Year for Division I. The award was not new to the Tide's newest head coach, as he was also tabbed with the same honor in 2006 when he led Division II Montevallo to the program's first ever College World Series appearance.

"Greg is a proven winner as a head coach, with an impressive record of developing programs into championship-caliber teams," said Battle of his hire. "I was impressed with his knowledge of the game and the SEC, his organization and control of games and practices, and his passion to coach at The University of Alabama."

The Jackson, Tenn., native has had success at every stop he's had as a head coach, including two seasons at Louisiana Tech (2015-16), seven seasons at Campbell University (2008-14) and four seasons at Montevallo (2004-07). He has won over 400 games and sports a near .600 career winning percentage. Goff has only suffered four losing seasons out of his 13 years as a head coach, with three of those four campaigns coming in his first year at each respective school.

Prior to his time as a head coach, Goff spent 10 years as an assistant coach, including time at the University of Kentucky from 1999-2003.

LOUISIANA TECH (2015-16)

Goff led an incredible resurgence in Ruston in just two seasons at the helm of the Louisiana Tech program. He inherited a team that won only 15 games in 2014 and improved each year over his two seasons, eventually reaching a 42-20 mark in 2016, which included an at-large berth in the NCAA Starkville Regional. It was the Bulldogs' first NCAA Regional appearance in 29 years, dating back to 1987, and the program's first at-large selection into postseason play.

During that 2016 campaign, Goff helped the Bulldogs reach the 40-win plateau for the sixth time ever and first since time since 1988. The 42 victories tied for the third-most wins all-time at Louisiana Tech. His squad never lost more than two games in a row and only lost back-to-back games four times over the 62-game stretch.

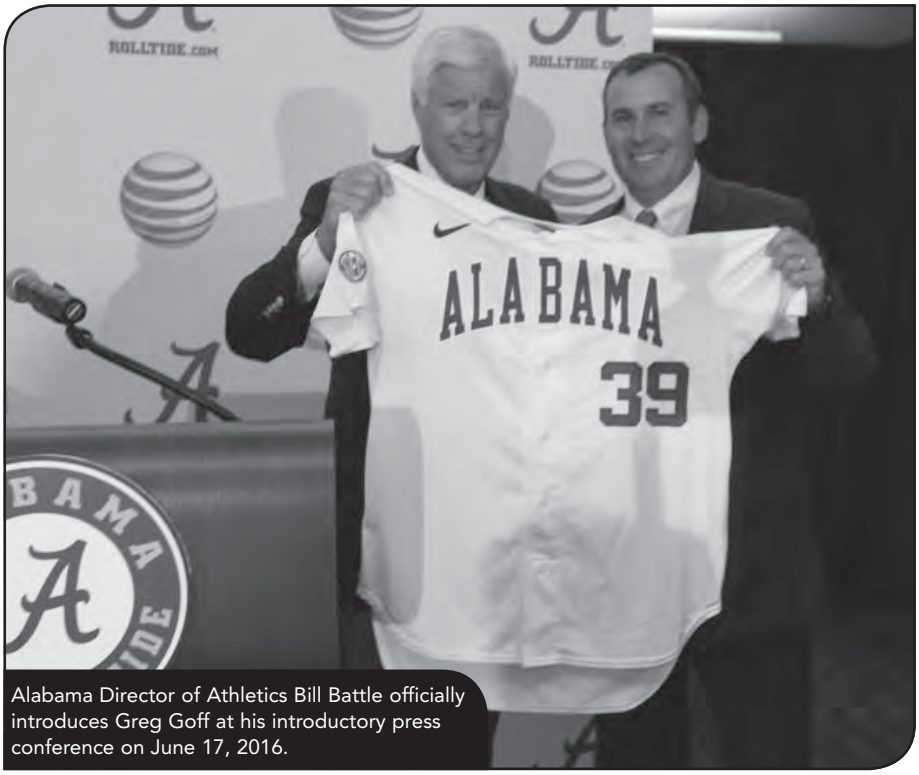
The 2016 Bulldogs made it to the finals of the Starkville Regional with wins over Southeast Missouri State and Cal State Fullerton before falling to fourth-ranked Mississippi State, the Regional's host team, in the championship game.

The Bulldogs' first at-large Regional bid was boosted by an impressive 10 victories over teams ranked in the top-25 nationally, and 11 victories over opponents that were seeded in the RPI top 50 throughout the campaign. Tech put together a 24-8 stretch to close out the season to further strengthen its postseason hopes in 2016.

Louisiana Tech sported a 23-9 non-conference mark in 2016, a record that was tops in Conference USA against non-conference opponents. That Tech team also set program records with seven series wins and 19 victories in Conference USA play, a league that was rated as the fifth-best league based on RPI in 2016.

His 2016 squad set school records for strikeouts (496), innings pitched (548.2) and fielding percentage (.972), while tying for the program record with 19 triples. The hitters contributed the third-most doubles (112) and at-bats (2,052) in program history while swiping 90 bases, a total that finished as the fourth-most in Louisiana Tech annals.

In his first season at the helm of the Tech baseball team, Goff led the Bulldogs to 25 wins, a total that eclipsed the previous season by 10 games, and finished 25-27 (.480) overall. That .480 winning percentage was the second-highest of any first-year head coach in Louisiana Tech history. The 10-win upgrade was the seventh-highest in program history and the Bulldogs' 12-game, non-conference winning streak to end the season tied a program-long mark. The 2015 team showed marked improvement in nearly every statistical category and provided a springboard for 2016's magical run.



Alabama Director of Athletics Bill Battle officially introduces Greg Goff at his introductory press conference on June 17, 2016.

CAMPBELL (2008-14)

Goff's time at Campbell proved a success, as he finished with a record of 224-174 during his time in charge of the Fighting Camels, including three consecutive 40-win seasons – the only 40-win campaigns in program history – during his final three years in Buies Creek. He was named Big South Coach of the Year and one of Perfect Game USA's top-10 rising college coaches thanks to his efforts in 2013.

The 2014 squad finished with a 41-21 overall record, the program's third straight 40-win season, a program first at Campbell. The Fighting Camels would finish as the Big South Tournament Champions on their way to the program's first NCAA Regional appearance. Campbell had three student-athletes tabbed to the All-Big South teams, highlighted by Ryan Thompson, who was a first-team selection. Thompson would go on to earn numerous postseason accolades including third team All-America honors from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America. The reliever was also chosen as a Senior CLASS Award Second Team All-American and placed on the ABCA Second Team Atlantic All-Region Team.

Campbell put together what would be the most successful season in program history up to that point in 2013. The 2013 squad finished with a school-record 49 wins and went 49-10 overall that season. The 49 wins and 41 wins from 2012 were the first consecutive 40-win seasons in program history. The 2013 Fighting Camels won the Big South's North Division title and finished as the runner-up in the conference's postseason tournament.

Nine Camels were named All-Big South after 2013, including Thompson, who earned the conference's Pitcher of the Year honors. Goff was chosen as a unanimous Coach of the Year for the Big South, as well. He also was named as one of Perfect Game's top 10 rising college coaches following the season.

The 2013 squad featured two student-athletes who would go on to lead the NCAA nationally, with Ben McQuown leading the nation in stolen bases at 54 and Thompson leading all pitchers with a lowly 0.88 ERA. As a team, Campbell finished sixth nationally in stolen bases (130), eighth in batting (.314) and 11th in on-base percentage (.404). The Camel pitcher maintained a 2.63 ERA, a total that ranked seventh in the nation, while allowing 7.95 hits per nine innings to finish 22nd in the NCAA.

Numerous Campbell records were tied or broken during the 2013 campaign, including games played (59), stolen bases, ERA, shutouts (6), innings pitched (531.0) and fewest walks per nine innings (3.23). The team's 2.63 ERA was a Big South record as well as the all-time low at Campbell.

His 2013 team featured three First Team All-Big South selections, one second-teamer and a third-team honoree. Michael Felton, who earned first-team honors from the conference, was also chosen as an NCBWA Second Team All-American, marking Campbell's first All-American at the Division I level.

The Camels went 41-18 (.695) in 2012, 49-10 (.831) in 2013 and followed that with a 41-21 (.661) mark in 2014. His 2013 squad captured the Big South regular season championship, while his 2014 team improved upon that by winning the Big South Tournament and advancing to an NCAA Regional.

Goff's 2011 and 2012 rosters posted victories over numerous nationally ranked and recognized teams, including a home win over then-No. 18 N.C. State in 2012 to mark the fifth consecutive year the Fighting Camels took down a top-25 team in the regular season. His 2012 team finished 41-18 to record the first of three consecutive winning seasons for Goff at Campbell.

The 2010 Fighting Camels set 19 school records, including hits (696), doubles (159) and stolen bases (119) on the offensive side, and fewest walks issued per game (3.73/game) from the pitching staff. The 28-27 record helped the 2010 squad post consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 2001, and the 28 victories were the most wins at Campbell in nine years.

His second season at Campbell saw marked improvement, leading the Fighting Camels to their first winning season since 2001 with a record of 27-24. The 27 wins was the most victories since the 2001 squad that posted 33 wins, and tied for seventh all-time in the CU record books for the most single-season victories. The 2009 team led the A-Sun in in five offensive categories and was in the top 50 overall in 10 separate offensive categories as a collective. Individually, his hitters ranked as the first, second and third-best batting averages in the league, while 15 players ranked in the nation's top 50 in nine separate offensive categories.

In his first year at Campbell, Goff led the team to its most wins since 2005, finishing at 21-37, an improvement of 10 wins from the season before his arrival. His inaugural squad also finished with 14 wins against Atlantic Sun competition, the most against conference opposition since 2001. The 2008 Fighting Camels set five team or individual records, while ranking in the top 50 nationally in five different offensive categories.

MONTEVALLO (2004-07)

Prior to his tenure at Campbell, Goff directed Montevallo to a 152-84 (.644) mark across his four seasons. In his final two years at UM, the Falcons set program records for wins in back-to-back seasons, with 43 wins in 2006 and 47 in 2007. Goff led Montevallo to its first NCAA Division II College World Series in 2006, where his team finished third, and claimed the Southeast Region Championship. That same year, Goff was named the ABCA South Central Region Coach of the Year, as well as the Coach of the Year for all divisions by the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

Goff brings a wealth of coaching experience to the Capstone, including 10 combined seasons as an assistant coach prior to his time at Montevallo. His final stint as an assistant coach came at the University of Kentucky where he spent four seasons as the Wildcats' pitching coach from 1999-2003. During his time in Lexington, he helped guide UK to 38 victories in the 2000 season, a total that was a program record at the time. Goff was also an assistant at Southeast Missouri State from 1997-99 and his alma mater, Delta State, from 1994-97.

ABOUT GOFF

Goff played collegiately at Jackson State Community College, where he earned his associate's degree in 1991. He then spent time on the mound at Delta State, where he would eventually earn his bachelor's and master's degrees in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

He is married to the former Tina Newbill of Jackson, Tenn. They have four daughters: Kara, Kiley, Kolby and Kenzie.

2017 Coaching Staff

TERRY ROONEY

Associate Head Coach — First Year

RADFORD, 1996

University of Alabama head baseball coach Greg Goff officially announced the addition of Terry Rooney to the Crimson Tide coaching staff on July 9, 2016. Rooney holds the title of associate head coach while working as the team's pitching coach and assisting with recruiting efforts. He brings a wealth of experience to Tuscaloosa, spending 20 years in the collegiate baseball coaching profession, including the past eight as a head coach at the University of Central Florida.

"To have the opportunity to hire a guy with the coaching pedigree like Terry Rooney is tremendous. He has experienced so many things in his coaching career from working his way up to being a top assistant in the SEC and helping take a team to Omaha, to becoming a well-respected head coach. It is a great opportunity for our program to have someone with that kind of experience come to be a part of what we are building at The University of Alabama.

"The thing I am so excited about is Terry's ability to recruit," Goff continued. "Everywhere he's been, he has recruited top-10 classes and that's why I was really attracted to what he brings to our program. In addition, the development that Terry has done with his pitching staffs at every stop is good as anybody in the country."

Rooney has an extensive background in college baseball, making numerous stops prior to his most recent stint as the head coach at UCF from 2008-16. Before heading to Orlando, he was an assistant at LSU (2007-08), Notre Dame (2004-06), Stetson (2002-03), Old Dominion (2000-01), James Madison (1998-99) and George Washington (1997). In all of those stops, Rooney was involved in at least a pitching and/or recruiting role. He has also helped lead five different schools to NCAA Regional appearances during his time coaching.

He led the UCF baseball program to new heights during his eight seasons at the helm, helping the Knights earn a national top-30 ranking five separate years. Under his guidance, UCF reached the postseason in consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012, marking just the second time in school history the program has achieved that feat. Rooney was named the American Conference Coach of the Year in 2014. The following season, Rooney guided UCF to a program-best No. 6 overall ranking by Baseball America.

His time at UCF was also highlighted by his recruiting efforts, where Rooney put together nationally recognized recruiting classes on four separate occasions. His 2010 recruiting class was slotted as the fourth-best nationally by Collegiate Baseball News and the 10th-ranked class by Baseball America.

Rooney developed the talent he brought to Orlando, helping the program have at least one student-athlete taken in nine straight drafts, including 24 total players under his watch since his arrival in the summer of 2008. From 2011-15, the Knights had at least one student-athlete selected in the top 10 rounds in those five consecutive drafts, a feat that was accomplished by only seven other schools nationally. This past season, two Knights were taken, boosting the program's all-time total to 93 players drafted, 56 of which went in the first 20 rounds. On the hill specifically, Rooney has produced a total of 50 MLB Draft picks across his time as a head coach and an assistant, including 16 picks in the top 10 rounds. He has also seen 10 of his former players go on to become Major Leaguers, highlighted by standout starting pitchers Justin Verlander and Jeff Samardzija.

He is considered one of the nation's premier recruiters. Before his time at UCF, he was involved with nine classes that were ranked among the national leaders. Collegiate Baseball News tabbed his 2007 class at LSU as the top group nationally, a class that included nine student-athletes who went on to be selected in the MLB Draft. He followed with another top-ranked class in 2008, and the Tigers' 2009 class was tabbed No. 20 nationally. Prior to his time in Baton Rouge, his 2006 class at Notre Dame was the nation's seventh-best class.

LSU was his last stop, serving as the associate head coach, before becoming the head man at UCF. While with the Tigers, Rooney served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007-08. He helped coach a 2008 squad that made it to Omaha for the College World Series, thanks in part to a standout pitching staff that walked only 201 batters compared to 554 punchouts. The Tigers' arms allowed just 2.89 walks per nine innings to rank in the top 25, and that same staff combined to finish with a 4.11 ERA, a total that was also top-25 nationally.

Prior to his time at LSU, Rooney was the pitching coach at Notre Dame for three years, starting in the fall of 2003. The Fighting Irish were an NCAA Regional participant all three seasons, and his 2004 pitching staff maintained a 3.43 ERA that ranked ninth in the nation, while two of three years saw the Fighting Irish rank in the 20 nationally in ERA. His 2006 pitching staff allowed only 18 home runs and set or tied four ND pitching records. During his tenure in South Bend, 12 total pitchers were selected. In 2006, three Irish arms were chosen, highlighted by Samardzija in the fifth round to the Chicago Cubs. In 2004, two hurlers were taken in the first 10 rounds, marking the first time in program history that two Fighting Irish pitchers were chosen in the top 10 rounds of the same draft.

He served as the pitching coach at Stetson from 2002-03, where he helped the Hatters make a pair of NCAA Regional appearances and post two 40-win seasons. Four Stetson pitchers earned All-Atlantic Sun honors and two were taken in the MLB Draft under Rooney's watch. His 2006 recruiting class was ranked 12th nationally by Baseball America, the highest ranking in the history of the program.

From 2000-01, Rooney worked at Old Dominion, helping the Monarchs earn an NCAA Regional berth as a No. 2 seed in 2000. Four of the pitchers that Rooney coached at ODU went on to play professional baseball, including Verlander, who he recruited and signed to play for the Monarchs.

He spent two years at James Madison from 1998-99, assuming the role of pitching coach and recruiting coordinator in 1999. Two of his pitchers went on to be selected in the first 10 rounds, and six from the 1999 signing class went on to sign professional contracts. His coaching career began at George Washington in 1997. He also served as an assistant in the collegiate summer leagues in 1996 and 1997 before becoming a summer league head coach in 1998.

Rooney played collegiately at Radford, where he pitched for three seasons for the Highlanders. For his career, he sported an 8-2 overall record and still ranks second all-time in school history with 79 appearances. He began his collegiate playing days at Davis & Elkins College in West Virginia, where he went 4-2 on the mound as a freshman. Rooney graduated from Radford in 1996 with his bachelor's degree in social science.

A native of Burke, Va., he and his wife, Shaun, were married in December of 2007. The couple has one daughter, Milly Margaret, who was born in April of 2014.

ASSISTANT COACH JAKE WELLS

JAKE WELLS

Assistant Coach — First Year

MONTEVALLO, 2005

University of Alabama head baseball coach Greg Goff announced the addition of Jake Wells to the Crimson Tide coaching staff on Tuesday, June 28, 2016. Wells, a former player under Goff at Montevallo, serves as the Crimson Tide's recruiting coordinator while also working closely with the team's catchers. He is the first to join Goff's Alabama staff, bringing a total of nine years of coaching experience to Tuscaloosa.

"I'm really excited that Jake decided to come be a part of our staff here at Alabama," said Goff of his first hire. "He played for me and coached under me, and he is one of the bright young coaches in the country. We were honored to get him on our staff. He is a tireless worker that will put forth a maximum effort each day."

Wells has previous experience working with catchers, dating back to his two seasons at Mississippi State from 2013-14 where his primary responsibility was to work with the team's backstops. While in Starkville, Wells tutored two catchers who went on to sign professional contracts and followed up in 2014 by coaching Gavin Collins to All-SEC Freshman Team honors, the program's first All-SEC freshman catcher in the program's 124-year history. He was an integral part of the Mississippi State staff that led the Bulldogs to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, including a finalist finish in the 2013 College World Series.

Most recently, Wells spent the past two seasons at Louisiana Tech as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator for Goff. Under his tutelage, the Bulldogs were able to improve in nearly every hitting statistic from his arrival in 2015 through last season. The 2016 offense tied the program record for triples with 19, while accumulating 112 doubles and 2,052 at-bats (both third-most all-time), and swiped 90 bases, a total that ranks fourth all-time in program history.

In 2015, his first season in Ruston, the Bulldog hitters batted .261, an 11-point improvement from the previous year. Louisiana Tech also scored 100 more runs that season than the year prior and drove in 99 more RBI as a team. The Tech on-base percentage also increased by .40 points from 2015 to 2016 under Wells.

While guiding the offense at La Tech, Wells helped junior Jonathan Washam earn All-Conference USA second-team honors in 2016. Washam finished with a .309 (51-165) average, 12 doubles, a triple, two home runs, 26 RBI and 28 runs scored. He was one of four Bulldog hitters to bat over .300 on the season and one of seven bats to collect 50-plus hits on the year. In addition, catcher Brent Diaz was named to the 2015 C-USA All-Freshman Team. Diaz accumulated 24 RBI and 21 runs scored to go along with his four doubles, two triples and four home runs.

"Jake is a player's coach," Goff added. "He's a high-energy guy with a lot of passion for the game of baseball, and he will always be available to help our players. He sets a high standard and expects the players to bring a positive energy and their best effort to the field every day."

Prior to his time at Tech, Wells spent his two seasons as the volunteer assistant coach at Mississippi State while also serving as the camps coordinator for the Bulldogs. Wells worked with the catchers and also served as the first base coach during his two seasons. In the offseason, he was in charge of coordinating the team's winter and summer baseball camps.

Before his time in Starkville, Wells spent two years as the head coach at Marion Military Institute in Marion, Ala., beginning in 2008 as an assistant and ending with him in the head coaching role for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. Over his five seasons in Marion, Wells coached 11 student-athletes who earned all-conference and all-region accolades.

The 33-year old has served as camp manager for youth baseball camps in Montevallo, Ala., and Devine, Texas, while also managing the Alabama Special Olympics State Tournament.

As a player, Wells was an all-state catcher at Devine (Texas) High School. After his prep days, he continued his career at Blinn (Texas) College, Lurleen B. Wallace (Ala.) Community College and eventually at the University of Montevallo.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and health promotions from UM in 2005. He went on to play professional baseball in the United League with the Laredo Broncos in 2009 and 2010. Wells is married to the former Melissa Sherrod of Longview, Texas.

DEREK SIMMONS

Vol. Assistant Coach — First Year

GEORGIA STATE, 2009

Derek Simmons enters his first season at Alabama in 2017. Officially hired on Monday, July 18, 2016, Simmons comes to the Capstone after spending four years as an assistant coach at Kennesaw State. He will focus primarily on working with the hitters and infielders, while also assisting in the team's recruiting efforts.

Simmons was at KSU from 2012-16, working as the team's hitting coach while helping tutor the infielders and lead the Owls' recruiting efforts. His recruiting classes were ranked nationally three separate times by Collegiate Baseball News and all four of his classes were tabbed as the top-ranked class in the Atlantic Sun Conference by Baseball America.

Under Simmons' guidance in 2016, Kennesaw batted .294 as a team on the way to a 17-4 mark in Atlantic Sun play. His hitters notched 85 doubles, 12 triples and 40 home runs to lead one of the Athletic Sun's top offenses and help KSU claim its first regular season conference title in program history. Seven Owl hitters batted above the .300 mark and the team's 578 hits ranked fifth in Kennesaw single-season history.

He also played a key role in the Owls' historic 2014 season in which Kennesaw State claimed its first A-Sun Conference Championship and a postseason spot in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional and then advancing to a Super Regional. The Owls wrapped up the 2014 stretch with the third-most hits nationally at 677, and posted a .297 team average that ranked 18th overall. Simmons also coached the hitters to a national ranking in runs (21st) and scoring (38th), while the Owls led the A-Sun in runs scored per game (6.0).

In that 2014 campaign, catcher Max Pentecost led the nation in total hits with 113 and was second in batting average at .422 while breaking every major offensive record in school history. Pentecost would go on to win the Johnny Bench Award, given to the nation's top catcher, and was a unanimous All-America selection before his selection at pick No. 11 by the Toronto Blue Jays, the highest draft pick in Kennesaw State history.

Prior to his time at KSU, Simmons spent two seasons at Central Michigan, where he also worked with the infielders and assisted with hitters. During his time in Mount Pleasant, he coached three All-MAC performers and has coached double-digit all-conference performers across his two career stops as an assistant.

In the offseason, Simmons has spent the previous two summers coaching the USA Baseball 18-and-under National Team at the Tournament of Stars, winning gold and silver medals in the process. He has also tutored the Most Valuable Player of the Cape Cod League, the premier summer collegiate league, and the National Summer Player of the Year.

During his six-year coaching career, Simmons has produced a Johnny Bench Award and Dick Howser Trophy winner. He has also tutored an ABCA District Player of the Year, Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and a finalist for the Olson Award, given annually to college baseball's breakout player of the year, and a Golden Spikes Award finalist. In addition to his student-athletes who have claimed awards, Simmons' resume features five All-America selections, 32 All-Conference selections and 25 Major League Baseball draft picks, eight of which went in the top 10 rounds of the draft. His teams have appeared in three conference championships and made one NCAA Super Regional appearance. Simmons also coached the 2014 Tallahassee Regional MVP, the 2015 Atlanta Sports Awards Collegiate Athlete of the Year and was a part of the 2015 Atlanta Sports Awards Team of the Year.

As a player, Simmons played for Greg Goff at Montevallo from 2006-07 before closing out his final two years of collegiate play at Georgia State. While at Montevallo, he helped lead the Falcons to their first Gulf South Conference championship, South Regional championship and a berth in the 2006 Division II College World Series. That year's team wrapped up the season ranked third nationally.

Simmons then transferred to Georgia State, becoming the first student-athlete in program history to earn first team All-Colonial Athletic Conference honors twice in his career (2008, 2009). He was named GSU's 2008 MVP on offense and was the 2009 team captain. Simmons finished his career in Georgia State's top-10 single-season ranks for average, RBI, home runs, at-bats, runs scored, hit by pitches, on-base and slugging percentage. He guided the Panthers to their first ever CAA conference title and the school's first NCAA Regional appearance in 2009. He went on to play professionally for the Gateway Grizzlies of the Frontier League.

A native of Roswell, Ga., Simmons graduated from Georgia State in May of 2009 with a degree in sociology. He and his wife, Erin, have one daughter, Isabella, and a son, Braxton.

BASEBALL STAFF

MICHAEL CHADWICK

Dir. of Baseball Ops. — First Year

MONTEVALLO, 2001

University of Alabama head baseball coach Greg Goff rounded out his inaugural staff with the hiring of Michael Chadwick to the Crimson Tide on Monday, July 18, 2016. Chadwick, who spent the past 21 years in various roles at Montevallo, came to the Capstone to be the Tide's director of operations.

He is reunited with his former boss in Goff, as Chadwick served as the athletic trainer for Goff's team when he was the head coach at Montevallo. He began his time at Montevallo in 1995 and leaves the university as the longest tenured member of the Falcon Athletic Department.

Chadwick served in numerous roles during his 21 years at Montevallo, most recently spending the past eight years as the Assistant Athletic Director for Internal Relations. He was responsible for overseeing business affairs, facility and event operations, as well as sports medicine and strength and conditioning. Prior to his promotion, Chadwick also worked as Montevallo's head athletic trainer and as an assistant athletic director for the Falcons.

His credentials also include being an active member of the Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association (CEFMA) and the College Athletic Business Management Associate (CABMA).

Chadwick earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Troy in 1994 and earned a master's degree in education from Montevallo in 2001. He and his wife, Shonda, have three children: Anna Beth, Becca Leigh and Landry.

JOE HOFFER

Athletic Trainer — 10th Year

COLLLEGE OF ST. SCHOLASTICA, 2003

Joe Hoffer is in his 10th season as an athletic trainer at The University of Alabama in 2017, all with the Crimson Tide baseball team.

Hoffer joined the Tide staff following a two-year stint at the University of Wisconsin-Stout and four years of experience with USA Baseball. He worked the 2006 and 2007 seasons at UW-Stout in Menomonie, Wis., where he served as the athletic trainer and pitching coach for the Division III school.

A veteran of the USA Baseball program, Hoffer served as the head athletic trainer for the under-18 squad that advanced to the World Championships in Thunder Bay, Ontario, in 2010. In 2006, Hoffer was the head athletic trainer for USA Baseball's 16-and-under team that captured the gold medal at the Pan American Games in Barquisimeto, Venezuela. He also worked as the Junior Olympic Athletic Training site coordinator in Peoria, Ariz., in 2004, 2005 and 2007.

Hoffer earned his Master of Science degree in sports administration and health promotion from Northwestern (La.) State University in 2005. During his two years at NSU, Hoffer worked with the football, track and field and baseball programs. He was the athletic trainer for the Demons baseball team that won the 2005 Southland Conference Championship under then-head coach Mitch Gaspard and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Regional in Baton Rouge, La.

A 2003 graduate of St. Scholastica in Duluth, Minn., Hoffer earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in exercise physiology with an emphasis in athletic training. He was a four-year letterman on the men's tennis team that advanced to the NCAA Regional finals all four years (2000-03) and won the 2001 Regional team title. Hoffer also worked as a student athletic trainer for the Division III institution.

Hoffer, a Minneapolis native, attended The Academy of Holy Angels in Richfield, Minn. He is married to the former Steph Miettunen, who holds a doctorate in pharmacy from the University of Minnesota and is a pharmacist in Tuscaloosa. The couple was married in 2008 and welcomed their first child, daughter Charleigh, on July 3, 2012, and a son, Cooper, on June 2, 2015.

LANCE ANCAR

Strength & Conditioning — Third Year

NORTH ALABAMA, 2009

Lance Ancar is entering his fourth year with The University of Alabama and third year with the Crimson Tide baseball program. Ancar joined the Alabama staff in 2013, starting off as an intern in the strength and conditioning department working with football, swimming, and rowing.

Prior to Alabama, Ancar spent five seasons playing in the Arena Football League, where he played for the Alabama Vipers, New Orleans Voodoo and the Georgia Force, being selected as a permanent team captain in 2009. Ancar played college football at the University of North Alabama where he started at center and served as a team captain. A three-time Division II All-American, Ancar also won the Rimington Award in 2005, given annually to the top center in each respective collegiate division. He was named to both the Gulf-South Conference All-Decade Team and the North Alabama All-Decade Team.

In between his playing career in the AFL, Ancar spent two years (2011-13) teaching and coaching at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga. There he coached football, wrestling and track, while also helping with their strength and conditioning program.

A 2009 graduate of the University of North Alabama, Ancar earned his bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in history. Ancar is certified by United States of America Weightlifting (USAW) and the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NCSA) as a certified strength and conditioning specialist (C.S.C.S.). He also has certifications in CPR/AED through the American Red Cross.

CAREER ACCOLADES
2016 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll
2015 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll
2014 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll

Elected to return to Alabama, passing up beginning his professional career after being selected in the 13th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Miami Marlins.

JUNIOR (2016)
Slotted in as the Tide's Sunday starter for nine SEC starts and 12 starts overall ... finished his junior campaign amongst the league leaders in nearly every pitching statistic ... closed out 2016 with a 2.30 ERA (17 ER/66.2 IP) to rank second in the SEC and led the conference with only 17 earned runs allowed and tied for third with 27 total runs given up ... allowed 57 total hits, the sixth-lowest total among pitchers with at least 50-plus innings pitched while limiting opposing hitters to a .227 average against, placing him 14th among conference pitchers ... issued 22 free passes, good for 10th among league arms ... sported a 2.65 ERA (15 ER/51.0 IP) against conference opposition to rank seventh in the league ... his .233 average against in SEC play was 13th overall while his 45 hits allowed were the 14th fewest ... finished as the team leader in overall ERA at 2.30 ... issued only 18 free passes during SEC play, a total that was the team-low ... only 15 of his 23 runs allowed during conference play were earned, as he fell victim to errors in nearly every SEC start ... did not allow more than one earned run in seven of his nine SEC starts. Maryland (2/21): Earned the first win by a Crimson Tide starter in 2016 ... tossed 6.0+ innings, allowing seven hits and one unearned run ... also struck out four and walked only one ... faced 26 hitters in Sunday's contest, his highest total since March 25, 2014, vs. Troy when he faced a career-high 28 hitters ... his one walk is his fewest walks issued in a start since May 6, 2014, against Jacksonville State, in that game, he tossed 4.0 innings. North Dakota (2/28): Tossed 3.0 innings, allowing one unearned run on two hits and a walk ... also struck out three ... threw 41 pitches before exiting the game with arm tightness. LSU (3/20): Working on a pitch count, tossed 4.0 innings of scoreless baseball ... allowed three hits and one walk while striking out one Tiger hitter ... threw 50 pitches total in his first outing back since his arm injury against North Dakota. Tennessee (3/26): Did not factor into the decision, working 5.0 innings ... allowed three runs (one earned) on five hits with four walks ... also struck out four across his 92 pitches. Kentucky (4/10): Earned his second win of the season after working a career-long 7.2 innings ... allowed only one run on three hits with a walk and three strikeouts ... retired the first nine batters he faced before giving up a single ... followed that hit with a streak of eight straight retired before issuing a walk ... tossed only 82 pitches despite the career-long innings total. Ole Miss (4/17): Secured the series win with his third victory of the season ... worked 6.0 innings and allowed one earned run on six hits and two walks with three strikeouts ... threw a season-high 97 pitches ... his one earned run allowed marked his sixth time in seven starts this season in that he has allowed one or no earned runs. Texas A&M (4/24): Spun another gem of a start for the Crimson Tide but did not factor into the decision, working 7.0 innings of one-run baseball, allowing six hits and not issuing a walk while striking out a season-high five batters ... the junior wrapped up his day recording the final nine outs in order to limit the high-powered Aggie offense ... it was the first time in his career where he allowed only one run three games in-a-row as a starter ... it was the junior's first time striking out at least five batters since April 28, 2015 against Southern Miss. Mississippi State (4/30): Started game two, suffering the loss despite not allowing an earned run … gave up only four hits and walked one while striking out a season-high tying five batters … retired nine of the final 10 batters he faced … an error in the second allowed for two runs to score, the eventual difference in the game as the Crimson Tide fell, 2-1. Auburn (5/8): Suffered the loss, tossing 6.1 innings and allowing six runs (four earned) on six hits and three walks with three strikeouts … gave up five across the first three innings, but bounced back at the end of his afternoon, retiring 10 of the final 11 batters he faced. Arkansas (5/15): Did not factor into the decision, working 6.0 innings of two-run baseball … allowed only one earned run … gave up three hits and issued three walks while striking out four across his 98 pitches of work … has now allowed one or no earned runs in seven of his nine SEC starts … extended his streak to six consecutive games in which he has worked at least 6.0 innings, the longest stretch of his career. Kentucky (5/24): Earned his fourth win of the season and his second over the Wildcats in 2016 … tossed 6.2 innings and allowed two runs on three hits and a pair of walks while adding three strikeouts … began the game by retiring the first nine hitters he faced before giving up a solo home run to break the streak … the win helped advance Alabama to the double-elimination portion of the 2016 SEC Tournament.

SOPHOMORE (2015)
Fluctuated between a starter and reliever role, making seven appearances on the season with five starts ... finished with a 3-1 record and one save while sporting a 3.65 ERA (10 ER/24.2 IP) with 25 strikeouts overall ... went 2-1 with a 3.79 ERA (8 ER/17.0 IP) and 18 strikeouts as a starter ... coming out of the bullpen, was 1-0 with one save and a 3.18 ERA (2 ER/5.2 IP) while striking out seven compared to one walk ... from April 7-April 28, struck out five batters in all four appearances. Savannah State (2/24): Tossed 3.0 scoreless innings of work, striking out three while walking four and allowing just one hit. UAB (3/31): Earned his first win of the season after working 1.2 innings of one-run baseball and striking out two. Samford (4/7): Earned his first save of the season, tossing 4.0 innings and striking out five batters while allowing one run on two hits and a walk. UAB (4/14): Notched the win in his second start of the season, tossing 3.2 innings and allowing one run on three hits and four walks with five punchouts. Mississippi Valley State (4/21): Tossed a season-high 7.0 innings of one-run baseball in the first game against MVSU to collect his third win of the year ... struck out five while walking two and allowing three hits. Southern Miss (4/28): Suffered his first loss of the season, tossing 4.0 innings and allowing a season-high four runs on a season-high nine hits while walking two and striking out five. Alabama A&M (5/5): Made his fifth start of the year, tossing a season-low 1.1 IP and allowing two earned runs on four walks and a hit ... Alabama's bullpen would hold the Bulldogs scoreless over the final 7.2 innings for the 7-2 win in game one the doubleheader.

FRESHMAN (2014)
Made 20 appearances in 2014 with nine starts, including two quality starts ... went 3-2 with a 3.35 ERA (19 ER/51.0 IP) and a .188 average against. St. Louis (2/15): Struck out one across 3.0 scoreless IP in his first collegiate appearance. Southern Miss (2/26): Did not factor into the decision in his first career start, surrendering one unearned run while striking four in 5.0 IP against the Golden Eagles. Samford (3/11): Gave up one run on three hits with a career-high 12 punchouts against the Bulldogs for his first victory at Alabama ... the 12 strikeouts tied Justin Kamplain for the most strikeouts in a game by an Alabama pitcher during the 2014 season. Troy (3/25): Picked up the second win of his career against the Trojans, allowing only one run on two hits and striking out nine through 7.0 IP. Jacksonville State (5/6): Credited with the win in a four-inning start, holding the Gamecocks scoreless.

Put together a standout sophomore season, finishing 5-4 with a 2.67 ERA (25 ER/84.1 IP) and a team-high 84 strikeouts compared to only 35 walks allowed ... improved in SEC play, maintaining a league-low 1.93 ERA (13 ER/60.2 IP) with 51 strikeouts compared to 21 walks, while limiting the opposition to two or fewer earned runs in nine of his 10 conference outings ... his 25 earned runs tied for the fourth-fewest allowed by an SEC arm and his 2.67 overall ERA ranked seventh among league pitchers ... allowed three earned runs or fewer following his first start of the season until his last start of the season against Florida in the SEC Tournament ... did not allow a home run in conference play until his final start of the regular season on May 20 against South Carolina. Maryland (2/20): Tossed 3.2 innings and allowed five earned runs ... cruised through the first three innings, retiring nine of the first 11 batters faced before running into trouble in the fourth inning ... allowed two home runs which are the first two homers issued for his career ... fanned six batters and walked three in the outing. North Dakota (2/27): Earned his first win of the season on the power of a career-high 13 strikeouts ... those 13 batters were the most an Alabama pitcher has struck out since Taylor Guilbeau fanned 11 against Texas A&M on March 20, 2015 ... tied a career-high with 7.0 IP, which he also set twice last season and most recently at Ole Miss on April 25 of his freshman year ... had season-lows with hits (6), runs (2 R/0 E) and walks (1). N.C. State (3/5): Did not factor into the win after throwing 6.0 IP and allowing one earned run against the No. 8 Wolfpack ... struck out six batters for the third straight game ... allowed a season-low four hits while throwing 102 pitches ... the 102 were the most pitches he had thrown since April 25, 2015, at Ole Miss. LSU (3/19): Earned his second win of the season, working 5.2 innings and allowing one earned run on seven hits and a walk with three strikeouts ... marked his first SEC win since April 18, 2015, at Missouri. Tennessee (3/26): Worked another solid start, tossing 5.2 innings and allowing two runs (one earned) with a four hits, a walk and five strikeouts ... it was his first time not allowing more than two earned runs against back-to-back SEC opponents since he did so against Missouri (April 18, 2015) and Ole Miss (April 25, 2015). Georgia (4/1): Worked 6.0 innings and allowed one earned run (three total) on seven hits with a walk and seven strikeouts … was the victim of two errors in the third that resulted in two of his three runs allowed. Kentucky (4/9): Tossed 5.1 innings of one-run baseball, giving up five hits and walking three while striking out five. Ole Miss (4/16): Put together a season-high 7.0 innings of scoreless baseball, allowing four hits and issuing a walk while striking out four batters for his third win of the season. Texas A&M (4/23): Grinded out a scoreless 5.2 innings of work, allowing five hits and a season-high six walks, but showing the poise to get out of big situations for his team-leading fourth win of the year ... allowed runners to reach in three of his five full frames, but stranded eight total by the end of his day. Mississippi State (4/30): Did not factor into the decision in game one, throwing 6.1 innings and striking out six ... allowed two earned runs on seven hits, matching his run total from his previous four starts combined … finished the month of April with a 1.19 ERA (4 ER/30.1 IP) with 23 strikeouts and 10 walks through five outings. Auburn (5/7): Tossed 5.0 innings and allowed two runs (one earned) on two hits and three walks with five strikeouts before turning it over to the bullpen … allowed only one earned run … the two hits allowed tied his career-low as a starter. Arkansas (5/14): Provided another strong start for the Tide, striking out nine total batters – a career-high mark in any SEC start for the sophomore – across his 7.0 innings of work to collect his fifth win of the season … gave up eight hits and issued three walks resulting in two earned runs ... faced a career-high 31 batters in the outing against the Razorbacks.

FRESHMAN (2015)
Began his freshman campaign as a reliever before moving into a starter role, first on Tuesdays and then eventually on Saturdays ... finished the season with a 4-4 record across 15 appearances (10 starts) and maintained a 3.36 ERA (21 ER/56.1 IP) ... was 3-4 with a 3.10 ERA (17 ER/48.2 IP) in 10 starts, notching 54 strikeouts and limiting opposing hitters to a .218 average ... out of the bullpen, went 1-0 with one save and sported a 4.70 ERA (4 ER/7.2 IP). Houston (2/21): Made his first career appearance for the Crimson Tide, tossing 0.2 scoreless IP. Savannah State (2/24): Worked 3.1 IP in game one against the Tigers, allowing two runs on four hits and two walks with five punchouts to earn his first career win. Samford (3/17): Earned the first start and win of his career and win in the starter's role, tossing 5.0 innings and striking out a then-team high nine batters ... recorded five of his first six outs by way of the strikeout ... surrendered just two hits across the start. South Alabama (3/24): Threw 5.0 IP and allowed two unearned runs to suffer the loss, his first of the season ... allowed three hits and three walks while striking out three Jaguars. UAB (3/31): Did not factor into the decision, tossing a season-low 3.0 IP as the Tide looked to get the bullpen some work ... fanned four batters while giving up one run. Samford (4/7): Tossed 5.0 scoreless innings and gave up only one hit while walking one to earn the win ... tied his season high for strikeouts with nine. Georgia (4/12): Went 2.0 scoreless innings to earn his first career save ... gave up a hit and issued one walk while striking out two Bulldogs. Missouri (4/18): Collected the win in his first career Southeastern Conference start ... tossed a season-high 7.0 innings of one-run baseball, striking out five ... did not allow a run despite giving up a career-high seven hits and walking one batter across a season-high 107 pitches. Ole Miss (4/25): Suffered the loss, his first since March 23 ... worked 7.0 innings of one-run baseball, striking out six in the process ... scattered six hits and retired nine straight at one point in the night ... allowed a career-high four walks across his 103 total pitches ... was outdueled by the Ole Miss pitcher who allowed just one run on the night. Arkansas (5/1): Suffered his second consecutive loss for the first time during his young career ... tossed 4.1 innings, allowing a season-high six earned runs ... cruised through the first three innings, retiring nine straight before running into trouble in the fourth ... Arkansas added one run in the fourth and then added five in the fifth to chase the Tide starter. Auburn (5/9): Did not factor into the decision against the Tigers ... allowed three unearned runs to continue his stellar play in SEC action, not allowing more than one run in three of his first four conference starts ... recorded six strikeouts to extend his streak of five or more punchouts in his first four conference outings ... kept the Crimson Tide in striking distance before exiting the game ... Alabama would go on to score six runs after his exit and claim the 7-6 win and series victory. Vanderbilt (5/15): Suffered the loss in his shortest career start ... tossed 1.1 innings against the seventh-ranked Commodores, allowing six runs on seven hits while striking out three ... the six earned run and seven hits both tied his season-highs. Texas A&M (5/20): Made the first postseason start of his career, but did not factor into the decision in the SEC Tournament ... put together 5.1 innings of work, allowing three runs on five hits and three walks while striking out four ... exited the game with the game knotted at 3-3 ... the Aggies would add one in the bottom of the eighth off the Crimson Tide bullpen to claim the 4-3 win.

2016 SEASON REVIEW

SEASON NOTES

• Alabama finished the 2016 campaign with a 32-26 overall record and a 15-15 mark in Southeastern Conference play. The Crimson Tide finished in ninth place in the final SEC regular-season standings and advanced to the conference tournament for the fourth consecutive year and sixth time in seven seasons under head coach Mitch Gaspard. The SEC Tournament appearance was the program's 33rd all-time.

• Head coach Mitch Gaspard resigned following the completion of the season. Gaspard left Alabama with a 234-193 (.548) overall record across his seven seasons in charge. He helped the Crimson Tide advance to an NCAA Regional on four different occasions and made one NCAA Super Regional appearance during his tenure at the Capstone.

• Despite having 15 regular-season conference wins and defeating eighth-seeded Kentucky in the opening round of the 2016 SEC Baseball Tournament, Alabama was not selected for an NCAA Regional. The league's top seven seeds were chosen as NCAA Regional host sites, while the No. 8 Wildcats and ninth-seeded Crimson Tide were left out of postseason play.

• UA was in nearly every game during the season, with 13 of the Tide's 26 losses coming by two or fewer runs.

• Alabama's schedule featured 24 contests against top-25 teams, with the Tide claiming series wins in Baton Rouge at then-No. 7 LSU and at home vs. then-No. 8 Ole Miss.

• The University of Alabama officially reopened the newly renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium in 2016. The $42.5 million reclamation project lasted just over one full season, with the finishing touches being put on The New Joe all the way up until opening night on Feb. 19 against the Maryland Terrapins.

• Opening night at Sewell-Thomas Stadium was a sellout as was Saturday's second game against the Terrapins. The two opening weekend sellouts were a part of nine total capacity crowds to fill the Joe by season's end. The Tide also sold out its March 25 contest against Tennessee, all three games against Ole Miss from April 15-17, game two of the doubleheader against Mississippi State on April 30, and finally the May 7 and 8 matchups against the Auburn Tigers.

• The three-game series against Ole Miss welcomed 18,689 fans to Sewell-Thomas Stadium across the weekend. That total was the second-largest crowd across a three-game series in Tuscaloosa. The Tide also had six total games of 6,000-plus fans - totals that ranked in the top 10 single-game attendance records in Alabama history. The largest crowd of the season came in game two against Mississippi State on April 30, where 6,644 fans watched the Tide and Bulldogs square off. That attendance number ranked as the second most fans at an Alabama baseball game in program history.

• Alabama's pitching staff carried the team throughout the 2016 campaign. The Crimson Tide arms finished with a 3.46 ERA (198 ER/514.1 IP) and 452 strikeouts compared to only 188 walks.

• Weekend starters Geoffrey Bramblett, Jake Walters and Nick Eicholtz highlighted the pitching effort, with the trio owning a combined 14-11 record and maintaining a 2.69 ERA (72 ER/241.1 IP) across 42 total starts. The three also struck out 196 compared to only 88 walks. Closer Thomas Burrows recorded a career-high 12 saves on the back end, finishing with a 0.95 ERA (3 ER/28.1 IP) and 41 strikeouts to just nine walks. Burrows' 12 saves moved him into sole possession of first place on the all-time career saves list with 30 through three seasons.

• On offense, Alabama finished with a .249 (480-1,925) average that included 91 doubles, six triples and 30 home runs. The Tide also swiped 43 bases in 59 attempts for a 73 percent success rate.

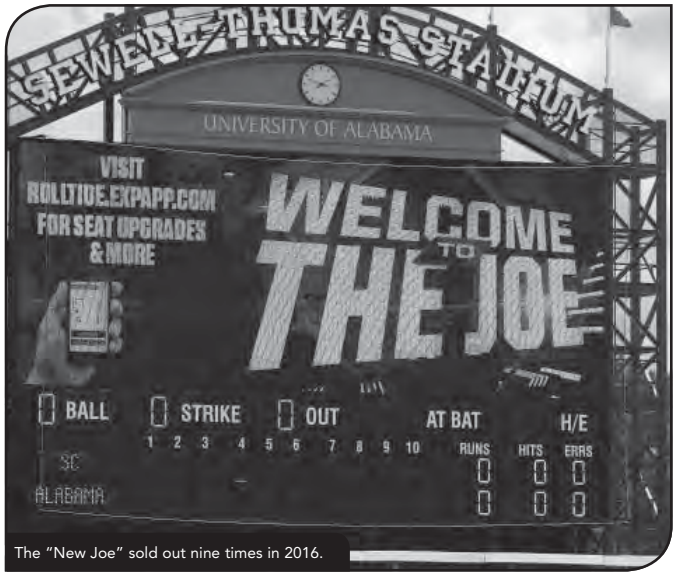
ALABAMA RETURNS TO TUSCALOOSA

The Alabama baseball program returned to its home at Sewell-Thomas Stadium in Tuscaloosa following a 2015 season that was spent on the road. The University opened the renovated stadium on Feb. 19, 2016, when the Crimson Tide hosted Maryland for the grand reopening of the team's home stadium. The $42.5 million project transformed Sewell-Thomas Stadium into one of the top baseball stadiums in the entire country.

"THE NEW JOE" A HIT WITH FANS

Sewell-Thomas Stadium welcomed 133,721 total fans inside its gates during the 2016 season. The Tide averaged 4,611 fans per game and sold out on nine different occasions. The Joe hosted its first and second sellout crowds on opening night, Feb. 19, and Saturday's second game of the homestand against Maryland on Feb. 20. The next sellout came on March 25 against Tennessee and was followed by a sold-out series with Ole Miss from April 15-17. The Tide then sold out game two of the doubleheader against Mississippi State on April 30 before selling out Saturday and Sunday's matchups against the Auburn Tigers from May 7-8.

The stadium set single-game attendance records on six separate occasions, welcoming 6,000-plus fans to individual games throughout the season. Those six games all ranked inside the top-10 single-game attendance marks in Alabama history, with the 6,644 fans for game two of the Mississippi State doubleheader ranking as the second-largest single-game crowd in Sewell-Thomas Stadium history. The Crimson Tide also set a three-game series attendance record against Ole Miss, welcoming 18,689 fans to watch the Tide and Rebels square off during A-Day Weekend. That three-game total was the second-largest cumulative attendance for a three-game series in program history.



The "New Joe" sold out nine times in 2016.

NO EASY START TO THE SEASON

• Alabama opened the 2016 campaign with one of the toughest first months in all of college baseball.

• In the first month, the Crimson Tide faced off with five teams who made a 2015 Regional (Maryland, Notre Dame, N.C. State, Houston, LSU), two that advanced to a Super Regional (Maryland, LSU).

• Seven of the 11 teams the Tide faced in the first month received votes in at least one of the five major preseason polls (Baseball America, D1Baseball.com, NCBWA, USA Today Coaches, Collegiate Baseball News), with four of those squads ranking amongst the top-15 teams in one of the respective polls.

• N.C. State, Houston and LSU were all ranked in the top-25 of all five major preseason polls.

• Maryland, Notre Dame and Southern Miss all received votes in at least one of the polls, with Maryland holding the No. 27 ranking by the NCBWA when the Terrapins came to Tuscaloosa.

• The Crimson Tide finished the gauntlet with a 13-5 overall record, including a series win at No. 7 LSU to close out the first month. The series victory in Baton Rouge was the Tide's first at Alex Box since 1996.

• Alabama also won its series against Maryland and single games vs. Houston and Notre Dame.

• The matchup with Oregon was cancelled due to weather, but the Ducks came to Tuscaloosa ranked 11th heading into the day's matchup.

GRAND REOPENING OF SEWELL-THOMAS STADIUM - vs. MARYLAND

• After a year away from Tuscaloosa, the Crimson Tide claimed its first victory inside the Joe, taking down Maryland, 3-1, in front of a sold-out crowd of 5,867 fans. Freshman Chandler Taylor homered in his first college at-bat to give Alabama the early 1-0 lead and would finish the season opener a perfect 2-for-2 with two RBI, one run scored, one walk and a hit-by-pitch in his four plate appearances.

• Game two went to the Terrapins, with Maryland putting together a six-run fourth inning powered by a trio of two-run home runs to claim the eventual 9-5 victory. Freshman Cobie Vance finished 4-for-5 with his first career homer and added two RBI and one run scored in the contest,

• Alabama claimed the rubber match of the weekend, winning 5-1 on Sunday thanks to a standout start from Nick Eicholtz. The junior right-hander worked 6.0 innings of one-run baseball before turning it over to his bullpen. From there, the relievers shut the door with 3.0 scoreless frames as the Alabama offense continued to tack on runs, putting up a three-spot in the eighth to add a cushion to the 2-1 lead.

• The Crimson Tide freshmen and sophomores contributed 11 of the team's 12 runs on the weekend, highlighted by Chandler Avant's team-high three RBI and three runs. Avant finished batting .308 (4-13) with a pair of doubles.

• The trio of Vance, Connor Short and Chance Vincent all finished the weekend batting .500. Vance hit safely in all three games and led the team with six hits, including one double and home run, to go with his two RBI, two runs scored and one stolen base. Short saw time in all three games with two starts, wrapping up his weekend with two RBI, one run scored and a walk. Vincent only recorded six official at-bats, notching two walks and two HBP two go with his two RBI and two runs scored.

• Alabama's bullpen worked a combined 6.2 scoreless innings of work in the two wins. In those late innings, the Tide relievers allowed only two hits and two walks while striking out a combined nine batters. Junior college transfer Matt Foster recorded a hold in each victory, working 2.0 IP with five of his six outs coming by way of the strikeout. Junior closer Thomas Burrows followed Foster, collecting a save each day and compiling five strikeouts across his 3.0 frames worked.

ALABAMA WINS IN BATON ROUGE

• The Crimson Tide kicked off SEC play with a trip to Baton Rouge to face the then-No. 7 LSU Tigers. Alabama would leave the Bayou with a 2-1 series win over the Tigers, the Tide's first series win in Baton Rouge since 1996.

• Saturday featured a doubleheader at Alex Box Stadium following a rainout on Friday evening. The first game of the twinbill went in favor of Alabama, 6-0, as the Tide shut out the Tigers in Baton Rouge for the first time since May 14, 2000. The Tide offense strung together 12 hits, with every starter recording at least one knock. Will Haynie highlighted the offense, finishing 2-for-4 with a double, two RBI and a run scored. Starter Geoffrey Bramblett paired with Jon Keller to blank LSU, as Bramblett collected his second win of the season and Keller his first save.

• The second game of the doubleheader also went to the Tide by a score of 4-3, as Alabama claimed the series victory with the win. Alabama's offense strung together four runs across the game and took a 4-1 lead into the ninth. The Tigers were able to get two and put the tying run at second, but a popup in foul territory ended the game and earned Matt Foster his first save of the season.

• Alabama led most of the day in Sunday's finale, but a six-run eighth inning proved to be the difference, as the Tide fell 7-5. UA carried a 4-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but five Tiger hits led to the six-run frame as LSU took its first lead of the weekend. Alabama rallied for one in the ninth and had the tying runs in scoring position, but could not pull off the comeback.

TIDE TAKES DOWN EIGHTH-RANKED OLE MISS

• Alabama hosted the nation's No. 8 team in the Ole Miss Rebels from April 15-17, claiming a 2-1 series win.

• A pitcher's duel between Alabama and Ole Miss in the series opener fell in favor of the Rebels, 4-0, on Friday evening. Geoffrey Bramblett spun another quality start, working 7.0 innings and allowing one unearned run on two hits and three walks with eight punchouts, but did not receive any run support in the outing.

• Game two featured another shutout, this time in favor of the Crimson Tide, 2-0, as starter Jake Walters and Thomas Burrows tag-teamed for the Tide's fourth shutout victory of the season. Walters worked 7.0 innings and allowed only four hits and one walk while striking out four batters for his third win of the year. Burrows followed, throwing 2.0 innings and allowing one hit while striking out a pair to record his ninth save of the season.

• A six-run fifth inning proved the difference in Sunday's rubber match, as Alabama finished off the eighth-ranked Rebels by a score of 7-2. Starter Nick Eicholtz earned his third win of the year thanks to 6.0 innings of one-run baseball. He was followed by freshman Dylan Duarte, with the lefty working 3.0 innings and allowing one run on three hits with three strikeouts for his second save this season. The Tide bats excelled on Sunday, with every member of the starting lineup reaching base at least once.

• Alabama's starters recorded a 0.45 ERA (1 ER/20.0 IP) across the three games against the Rebels. The three arms combined to allow two runs (one earned) on 12 hits and six walks with 15 strikeouts.

• Sewell-Thomas Stadium was sold out for all three games and saw 18,689 total fans come through its gates. That total for a three-game home series ranked as the second most all-time in Alabama history, just short of the 19,224 that attended the Tide's March 28-30, 2003, series against LSU.

GETTING HOT AGAINST AUBURN

• Alabama entered its series with in-state rival Auburn coming off a rough stretch that saw the Tide go 4-6 over its previous 10 games. The Tide would use the Tigers to springboard its offense while continuing its dominant pitching to earn the 2-1 series win over Auburn from May 6-8.

• Crimson Tide starter Geoffrey Bramblett and reliever Matt Foster limited a potent Auburn offense as Alabama claimed the 6-2 win over the Tigers on Friday night. Bramblett worked 5.2 innings and allowed two runs (one earned) to earn his fourth win of the season. Foster followed, tossing 3.1 innings and allowing just one hit while striking out a season-high seven batters for his second save of the year. The duo combined for 14 strikeouts - a season-high mark for punchouts by the Alabama staff in a nine-inning SEC game - while limiting AU to only four hits, tying the season-low total allowed by the UA pitching staff.

• Alabama walked it off in the 11th for the 4-3, extra-innings victory to seal the series win in front of a sold-out crowd on Saturday night. A grounder from Georgie Salem back at the AU second baseman resulted in an error, allowing Ryan Blanchard to score the game-winning run. The Tide was able to extend the game into extras thanks to a solo homer in the ninth from Will Haynie to even the score at 3-3. Haynie also notched an RBI single in the seventh to put the Tide within one, providing the opportunity to tie the game up in the ninth with his eventual solo shot. Thomas Burrows worked the final 2.0 innings to collect his first win of the season.

• Auburn avoided the sweep with an 8-1 win on Sunday in front of the weekend's second sellout crowd.

• Haynie led the UA offense, recording three multi-hit games and finishing with a .539 (7-13) average that paced the Tide. He had a pair of home runs, three RBI and two runs scored while notching a team-high 13 total bases.

• The Alabama bats recorded 34 hits (11, 11, 12) across the three games with Auburn, the most in any three-game series in 2016. The 34 hits also eclipsed the four-game total collected at the USA Baseball-Irish Classic.

• In total, Alabama-Auburn was watched by 18,511 fans. That combined total is the second-most fans to attend a three-game weekend series in 2016 and the third-most all-time in Crimson Tide history. Earlier in the season, 18,689 came through the turnstiles to watch Alabama-Ole Miss, which ranked as the second most in UA history.

SWEEPING IN FAYETTEVILLE

• The Crimson Tide traveled to Fayetteville for a three-game series from May 13-15 and swept the Arkansas Razorbacks on the road. The sweep was Alabama's first in Fayetteville since 2000.

• Eight runs after four innings provided UA with enough insurance for the 8-6 win, holding off Arkansas' late comeback attempt on Friday night. Crimson Tide starter Geoffrey Bramblett picked up his fifth win of the season after throwing 6.0 innings and allowing two earned runs. Thomas Burrows ensured the victory for the Tide, locking down his 11th save of the season to tie his career-high mark, which he set as a freshman in 2014. Vance led all hitters, collecting two hits, including his second home run of the season, and added one RBI and a team-high three runs. Chandler Taylor and Will Haynie also homered on the night.

• Alabama downed the Razorbacks, 10-4, on Saturday evening to claim the series win. The victory was powered by a two home run, five-RBI night from Haynie and another standout start from Jake Walters. The sophomore starter struck out nine Hogs, a career-high mark for Walters during SEC play, across his 7.0 innings of work to collect his fifth win of the season. Haynie accumulated his five RBI thanks to a grand slam and a solo homer, while Taylor once again homered with the duo collecting roundtrippers in back-to-back games.

• Trailing by one heading into the ninth, the Tide rallied for four runs in the top of the frame to secure the 7-4 win on Sunday and complete the series sweep of the Razorbacks. Alabama fell behind in the eighth after a two-run homer put them behind, but a ninth-inning rally led to four runs and the victory. With the bases loaded and two down, Salem sent a single up the middle to score two and give UA the 5-4 lead. Haynie then delivered a two-RBI single to push the lead to 7-4, before Burrows limited Arkansas in the ninth to collect his second win of the season. Nick Eicholtz was handed the no-decision once again despite working 6.0 innings and allowing two runs (one earned) on three hits and three walks.
• The Crimson Tide offense erupted for seven home runs and 25 runs scored across the three-game series in Fayetteville, with every starter notching at least one hit on the weekend.
• Alabama's effort at the plate was led by Haynie, who finished with three home runs, and eight RBI, while Taylor added two homers and six RBI to the Tide output. Salem led UA in hitting against the Hogs, batting .455 (5-11) with a pair of doubles, one home run, five runs scored and three walks while also stealing a base.
• Including the Tuesday game against Samford following the weekend in Fayetteville, Alabama's 33 runs over the four game stretch was its highest output across any four-game period in 2016.

TIDE RETURNS TO THE SEC TOURNAMENT FOR FOURTH CONSECUTIVE SEASON
Alabama reached the SEC Tournament for the 33rd time in program history in 2016. It marked the fourth consecutive year and sixth time under Mitch Gaspard. Ninth-seeded Alabama defeated No. 8 seed Kentucky in the opening round of the Tournament before falling to SEC regular-season champion Mississippi State, the top-seeded team, and then being eliminated by the No. 4 Florida Gators. Below is a recap of the Tide's time in Hoover:
• 5/24 vs. (8) Kentucky - The Crimson Tide advanced to the double-elimination portion of the conference tournament with a 5-2 win over eighth-seeded Kentucky in the Tournament's opening round. With the win, Alabama became the only lower seed to win on opening day. Starter Nick Eicholtz picked up his fourth win of the season and his second over the Wildcats in 2016 thanks to 6.2 innings of two-run baseball. Eicholtz retired the first nine batters he faced and allowed three hits and a pair of walks while striking out three by day's end. Reliever Matt Foster followed with Thomas Burrows closing out the game to earn his career-high 12th save of the season. The Tide offense was led by Will Haynie and Hunter Webb, who each finished 3-for-5 with two RBI apiece. Haynie added his team-high 10th home run and collected a pair of runs scored, as well.
• 5/25 vs. (1) Mississippi State - Alabama's ninth-inning rally was not enough, as the Crimson Tide fell, 4-1, to Mississippi State in the first game of the double-elimination round. In danger of being shut out, Georgie Salem provided the Tide with a two-out, ninth-inning double before Chandler Taylor sent another double off the wall to score Salem and put UA on the board. The back-to-back hits ended Bulldog starter Zac Houston's day. Houston had the Crimson Tide's number for most of the game, working 8.2 innings of one-run baseball. The MSU starter allowed just four hits and did not walk a batter while striking out five Tide hitters.
• 5/26 vs. (4) Florida - The Tide's run in the 2016 SEC Tournament came to an end on Thursday, as Alabama fell, 5-4, to fourth-seeded Florida in a back-and-forth contest. The two teams changed leads or went even on five different occasions across the nine innings of play, with Florida coming out on top in the end. The Crimson Tide pitching effort was highlighted by Matt Foster, who worked a career-high 5.0 innings of scoreless baseball, allowing three hits and issuing two walks while punching out three Gator hitters.

BRAMBLETT, WALTERS, EICHOLTZ TRIO IN SEC PLAY
• The Crimson Tide's 1-2-3 punch of Geoffrey Bramblett, Jake Walters and Nick Eicholtz was one of the best weekend trio of starting pitchers in SEC play.
• Combined, the three made 29 conference starts and owned a 10-8 record with a 2.69 ERA (51 ER/170.2 IP). Of those 29 outings, 15 were quality and only five of those saw a starter give up more than three earned runs.
• Walters and Bramblett finished tied with four wins apiece while Eicholtz had two to his name.
• Bramblett excelled on opening night during his junior campaign in the SEC, sporting a 3.51 ERA (23 ER/59.0 IP) and was the trio's leader in opponent average at .229.
• Walters was key to the Crimson Tide on Saturdays, sporting a league-low 1.93 ERA (13 ER/60.2 IP) with 51 strikeouts compared to 21 walks. He finished his sophomore season having allowed two or fewer earned runs in nine of his 10 starts.
• Eicholtz allowed only 15 earned runs across his 51.0 innings pitched (2.65 ERA) and helped the Tide avoid the sweep at Kentucky followed by giving the Crimson Tide the series win over No. 8 Ole Miss on April 17 with a quality start on Sunday. He did not allow more than one earned run in seven of his nine conference starts, and his 2.65 ERA ranked seventh in the league.

BURROWS ON THE BACK-END
• Alabama closer Thomas Burrows has been a staple on the back-end of games for the Crimson Tide during his three seasons at Alabama. The three-year stopper accumulated an Alabama career record 30 saves across his 102.1 innings pitched. Burrows' 30 saves surpassed the previous record of 21 set by Brian Reed from 2002-03.
• In 2016, Burrows' 12 saves in 13 chances ranked near the top of the SEC. Those numbers were a bit skewed, as the junior did not make an appearance on the hill from March 5 vs. N.C. State until March 31 at Georgia due to an oblique injury that sidelined him for nearly a month.
• In his 28.1 innings of work across 21 appearances during his junior campaign, Burrows allowed only 19 hits and nine walks compared to 41 strikeouts. Opposing hitters batted a lowly .179 (19-106) against him.
• He limited lefties to only three hits all season for a .143 (3-21) average, while righties batted .188 (16-85) against the closer.

BURROWS SELECTED AS NCBWA THIRD TEAM ALL-AMERICAN
• Closer Thomas Burrows was selected as a third team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), the first All-America nod of his career.
• Burrows finished his season with 12 saves in 13 chances, a career-high mark. He went 2-1 and maintained a lowly 0.95 ERA (3 ER/28.1 IP) across 21 appearances.
• He issued only nine walks compared to 41 strikeouts to average 13.02 strikeouts per nine innings, and hitters were only able to manage 19 hits off Burrows, as he limited opposing bats to a .179 average.
• Burrows was one of 67 combined student-athletes chosen to the NCBWA's All-America first, second and third teams.

TAYLOR SELECTED TO 2016 FRESHMAN ALL-SEC BASEBALL TEAM
• Chandler Taylor was selected to the 2016 Freshman All-SEC Team as an outfielder, the league announced as part of its postseason awards prior to the 2016 SEC Tournament.
• One of the top hitters in the Tide's offense, Taylor excelled in his first season of collegiate baseball. He was the only Alabama player during the 2016 season to homer in back-to-back games twice, first from April 22-23 at Texas A&M and then at Arkansas from May 13-14.
• He finished his first season as the team's leader in walks with 40, 24 of which came in SEC games, and ranked second in home runs with nine total.
• Taylor was equally as impressive against SEC competition, batting a team-leading .295 (31-105) with 16 extra-base hits (seven doubles, two triples, seven home runs), 25 RBI, 16 runs, 24 walks and 63 total bases. He reached base safely in 27 of 29 conference matchups, including his final 18 against SEC opponents.
• The Montgomery, Ala., native was Alabama's first Freshman All-SEC selection since Thomas Burrows in 2014 and the first position player to be selected to the team since Kyle Overstreet in 2013.

ROGERS NAMED TO THE 2016 SEC BASEBALL COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM
• Sophomore reliever Zac Rogers was selected to the 2016 Southeastern Conference Baseball Community Service team on Wednesday, May, 18.
• Rogers put in 20-plus hours of service during the 2015-16 academic year as part of baseball's continued efforts in the Tuscaloosa community. The team once again led all male sports teams at the University this season for community service hours worked, a distinction the Tide has held numerous time under head coach Mitch Gaspard.
• He spent a majority of his community service hours across six separate visits to University Place Elementary in Tuscaloosa.
• The Goodwater native also volunteered at Tuscaloosa Emergency Services, with the Miracle League of Tuscaloosa and at the Athletics Department's annual Halloween Extravaganza.
• Rogers and his teammates partnered with High Socks for Hope, the charity of former Alabama reliever and current Chicago White Sox closer David Robertson. The two parties teamed up to pack and deliver boxes of food to veterans across Tuscaloosa. The boxes provided former military members with a ready-to-make Thanksgiving meal, and allowed them to have a worry-free holiday in the process.

TAYLOR NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK - MARCH 21
• Alabama outfielder Chandler Taylor was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for his performance across four games from March 15-20.
• Taylor closed out the week with four hits, three of which were for extra bases including one double and his team-leading third and fourth home runs of the season. He contributed a team-high 11 total bases for the week and led the Tide in slugging percentage at .733.
• He began the week with a pair of walks at Southern Miss before the Tide traveled to Baton Rouge to take on the seventh-ranked LSU Tigers.
• The Montgomery, Ala., native finished his first career SEC series with a hit in each game and four total.
• In the doubleheader against the Tigers, Taylor batted .333 (3-9) with a double, home run, two RBI and one run scored to help the Crimson Tide earn its first series victory in Baton Rouge since 1996.
• Taylor knocked a two-run home run in the ninth inning of Saturday's first game of the twinbill, putting the game out of reach as the Tide blanked the Tigers, 6-0, for the first shutout win over LSU since May 14, 2000.
• On Sunday, he homered once again, extending his team lead to four homers on the young season.

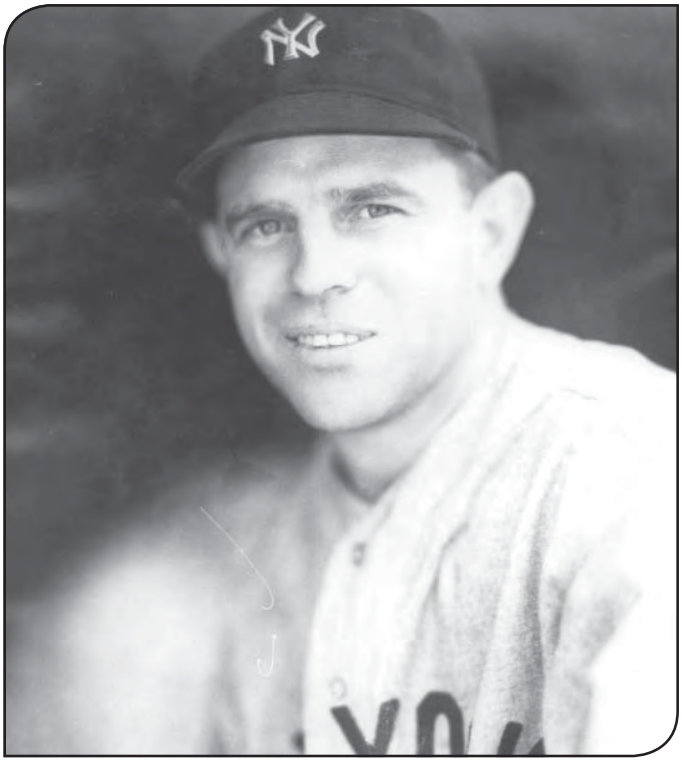
1977 MLB HALL OF FAME MEMBER - JOE SEWELL



Joe Sewell had a knack for this "funny game."

That knack has made him the only player in Crimson Tide baseball annals to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in the quaint little town of Cooperstown, N.Y.

The only other Crimson Tider in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is New York Yankees legendary broadcaster Mel Allen, who along with Florida alum Red Barber earned induction in 1978 as the inaugural winners of the Ford C. Frick Award.

Inducted in the Hall of Fame in 1977, Sewell's career spanned 14 seasons with the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees.

From the moment he left the Capstone as student body president in 1919, Sewell's major league career was the stuff dreams are made of. After leading the Crimson Tide to the 1919 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship, Sewell was selected by the Indians and signed with the New Orleans team in the Southern Association.

The Titus, Ala., native made his Major League debut with the Indians in the heat of a 1920 pennant drive, after their everyday shortstop was killed after being hit with a submarine pitch. Sewell rose to the challenge and batted .329 over the final 22 games of the season to help the Indians clinch the American League pennant.

Alongside future Hall of Famers Stanley Coveleski, Tris Speaker and Bill Wambsganss, Sewell and the Indians disposed of the Brooklyn Robins in seven games, taking the 1920 series five games to two. Sewell batted only .174 (4-23) in his first trip to the fall classic, but was solid in the field in all seven games, helping the Indians lay claim to the World Series title.

He played 11 years for the Indians before joining the New York Yankees roster for the final three years of his outstanding Major League career.

Sewell once again tasted greatness with Yankees in 1932, when New York beat the Chicago Cubs in the most talked about World Series in history. The Yankees won 107 games in 1932 and swept the Cubs in the best-of-seven fall classic. The Yankees took the first two games at Yankee Stadium (12-6 and 5-2) before moving to Wrigley Field for games three and four.

In game three, Babe Ruth, a teammate and close friend of Sewell, made baseball history. Ruth's fifth inning at-bat off Chicago hurler Charley Root is still the most talked about home run in baseball history.

Ruth earlier had slugged a three-run home run in the first inning and legend has it that, after taking two called strikes in his third at-bat, the Sultan of Swat pointed to center field before he slammed a two-run home run over the head of Johnny Moore. It has become the most debated home run in the history of the fall classic.

The Yankees won the game 7-5 and then closed out the Cubs the following day (13-6) to win the 1932 World Championship. In a lineup filled with Hall of Famers from Frank Crosetti to Bill Dickey to Lou Gehrig to Ruth, Sewell batted .333 (5-15) in the four games with six runs scored and two RBI. He was on base when Ruth slugged his first-inning home run in game three and witnessed the famed "called shot" from the Yankees dugout.

Sewell also was a close friend and roommate with Yankee legend Lou Gehrig, whose career tragically was cut short due to ALS in the 1930s.

In 14 Major League seasons, Sewell batted .312 (2,226-7,132) with 1,051 career RBI. He played in nearly 2,000 career games and logged over 7,000 at-bats for the Indians and Yankees. He also had more than 2,000 hits, 1,000 runs scored and 1,000 RBI.

Sewell hit .300 or better in 10 of his 14 seasons in the big leagues. His best season was 1923 when he batted .353 (195-553) with the Indians. He collected a career-high 204 hits with the Indians in 1925 when he posted a .336 (204-608) batting average.

An outstanding fielder, Sewell led the American League in putouts and assists four times in his career and led the league in fielding percentage three times.

A "singles hitter" overshadowed by some the game's greatest sluggers, Sewell set five major league records that continue to pass the test of time: fewest strikeouts in a season (3, two times); consecutive games without a strikeout (115); consecutive at-bats without a strikeout (437); most seasons of 500 or more at-bats with fewer than four strikeouts (4); and fewest career strikeouts (114).

Throughout his sparkling 14-year career at the pinnacle of the baseball profession, Sewell turned in numbers that simply are amazing to the average baseball fan. For instance, his 114 career strikeouts in more than 7,000 career at-bats averages out to one strikeout for every 63 at-bats, and one strikeout in every 16 games played.

And still years later, in 1964 at age 66, Sewell, a Tuscaloosa resident and businessman since his college days, took over the Crimson Tide's baseball program as head coach. In his seven-year tenure, Alabama compiled a 114-99 (.535) record, which included winning the 1968 SEC Championship and a trip to the NCAA District III Playoffs in North Carolina.

Sewell was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in 1977, along with Ernie Banks, Martin Dihigo, Pop Lloyd, Al Lopez and Amos Rusie. He is one of 11 Alabama natives to be enshrined in Cooperstown, joining fellow legends Hank Aaron (Mobile), Monte Irvin (Columbia), Heinie Manush (Tuscumbia), Willie Mays (Westfield), Willie McCovey (Mobile), Satchel Paige (Mobile), Ozzie Smith (Mobile), Don Sutton (Clio), Billy Williams (Whistler) and Early Wynn (Hartford).

Sewell died on March 6, 1990, in Mobile, Ala., after a lengthy illness. At the time of his death he was the oldest living baseball Hall of Famer at 91 years of age.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD - MEL ALLEN

Mel Allen is as much a part of the national pastime as the squeeze play, hot dogs, and pennants flapping in the breeze. And he never played in the big leagues. Instead he broadcasted the game, and that allowed the fans to play the games over and over in their minds. His voice is the one that millions of fans associate with the game of baseball.

Born Melvin Allen Israel, the son of a traveling textile representative in Birmingham, and raised all over Alabama, he was a spindly student manager for the Crimson Tide football and baseball teams when he received his chance to announce games. Allen's first assignment behind the microphone was doing play-by-play of a football game between Tulane and Alabama, his beloved alma mater.

While a student at Alabama, Allen sold shoes, coached speech and debate, and ultimately earned his law degree before winning an audition to announce in New York for CBS Radio. After the audition with CBS in 1936, Allen broadcast his first World Series for the network in 1938. He joined the Yankees the following year and stayed for 25 more, delighting millions of baseball fans with his warm sign-on – "Hello, everybody!" – and his trademark phrases "How about that!" and "Going, going, gone!"

Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees from 1939 to 1964, covering the team that aroused more passion than any other in baseball. With his vivid phrases and pleasing Alabama drawl, he called many of the great events in the game: the Babe's good-bye, Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series, Mantle's heroics, Maris' record-shattering summer (1961), Casey's barbs and Yogi's convoluted pronouncements.

"Mel Allen meant as much to Yankee tradition as legends like Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio and Mantle," Yankees owner George Steinbrenner said. "He was the voice of the Yankees."

In an era before television, millions of radio listeners around the nation envisioned the game through the descriptions of this thoughtful and articulate Alabamian who prided himself on being both a reporter and storyteller.

Allen later moved to the Milwaukee Braves in 1965, went on to broadcast for the Cleveland Indians and handled a variety of assignments for NBC. He returned as the voice of the New York Yankees in 1970s and began a 19-year association with This Week in Baseball as host of the popular television program.

Former Crimson Tide baseball manager and public address announcer Mel Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees for 39 years. Allen served as emcee for "Babe Ruth Day" at Yankee Stadium.

In his 58 years of sports broadcasting, Allen did it all. He called thousands of Yankees games, 24 Major League Baseball World Series, 20 All-Star Games, 14 Rose Bowls, five Orange Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and more than 2,000 newsreels.

A winner of numerous industry, listener and viewer awards, Allen is a member of National Baseball Hall of Fame (as the first Ford C. Frick winner in 1978), National (USA) Sportswriters and Broadcasters Hall of Fame (1972), the American Sportscasters Association Hall of Fame (1985), the Radio Hall of Fame (1988), the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Alabama Communication Hall of Fame (1995) and was enshrined to Monument Park at Yankee Stadium (July 25, 1999).

Decades ago, Allen sat next to a weakened Lou Gehrig in the dugout before a game. Gehrig soon would die from the disease that forced his emotional, early farewell from the game.

"Mel, sometimes your descriptions of the game are the only thing that keeps me going," Gehrig said.

Allen went into the tunnel and cried like a baby.

How about that?

1983 GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD/BASEBALL AMERICA PLAYER OF THE YEAR - DAVID MAGADAN

Never before or since has an Alabama baseball player had a season at the plate like David Magadan did in 1983.

The Alabama junior shattered school and Southeastern Conference records that still stand today in becoming the 1983 Golden Spikes Award winner, presented annually by USA Baseball.

Magadan, who concluded the 1983 season with six school career records (at-bats, runs, hits, RBI, doubles, total bases and batting average), was a major contributor in Alabama's national runner-up spot to Texas at the College World Series. He paced the Crimson Tide to winning the NCAA South Regional and Southeastern Conference titles en route to a 46-11 record, one the most successful campaigns in school history.

After batting an incredible nation-leading .525 (114-217) as a junior, Magadan was voted the 1983 College "Player of the Year" by Baseball America and he also led the team in hits (114), doubles (31), total bases (180) and slugging percentage (.829) during his record-setting campaign.

Magadan was a consensus first team All-America selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association, the Sporting News, Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association during the 1983 season and was a three-time All-SEC selection at the Capstone.

Two years earlier, Magadan hit safely in his initial 27 games as a freshman in 1981 and as a junior, went an incredible 10-for-11 (.909) at the 1983 SEC Tournament in Starkville, Miss., which included a five-hit game (2 doubles, 2 HRs) against Florida, en route to being named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. He also set the CWS record by hitting safely in his first eight trips to the plate and wound up batting .550 (11-20) at Omaha in five games.

After his freshman season at Alabama, Magadan led his American Legion team to the 1981 American Legion World Series title and was named the "Sports Club Amateur of the Year" when Tampa Post 248 won the national title. Magadan also is recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his amateur accomplishments in 1981.

The Tampa native played in 162 games during his Alabama career and batted .439 (268-610) with 64 doubles, 14 home runs and 188 RBI. His .439 batting average still ranks among the leaders in Division I baseball and remains atop the SEC record books as the highest career average in league history.

Magadan still holds Alabama records for single-season batting average (.525, 1983), career batting average (.439, 1981-83), single-season hits (114, 1983), single season doubles (31, 1983) and single-season RBI (95, 1983). He also set the Alabama standards for highest batting average for a freshman (.399, 1981) and junior (.525, 1983) and most RBI (95, 1983) by a junior and shares the single-game record with five hits, a feat he accomplished an Alabama record three times against Alabama Christian (April 16, 1983), Florida (May 13, 1983) and Arizona State (June 4, 1983).

First drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of Tampa's Jesuit High School, Magadan then was one of six Alabama players selected in the 1983 MLB Draft. He signed with the New York Mets and was assigned to the Columbia, S.C. Mets in the class A South Atlantic League in his first pro ball assignment. In that first summer, Magadan batted .336 with three home runs and 32 RBI.

Magadan made his Major League debut for the Mets against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 17, 1986, as the starting first baseman at Shea Stadium. In the game, he went 3-for-4 with two RBI, including the game-winner in the eighth inning that clinched the National League Eastern Division title for the eventual world champions.

In 1990, Magadan finished third in the National League batting race with a career-best .328 (148-451) average. He played 16 years in the Major Leagues before retiring from the game after the 2001 season. In those 16 seasons, Magadan hit .288 (1,197-4,159) with 42 home runs and 495 RBI in 1,582 career big-league games.

After his playing days, Magadan was named the roving minor league hitting instructor by the San Diego Padres, before being promoted as the big-league hitting coach prior to the 2003 season. After four seasons with the Padres, Magadan was named the hitting coach for the Boston Red Sox in 2007. After working six years in Boston, Magadan began working as the hitting instructor for the Texas Rangers in 2013, a title which he held through the 2015 Major League Baseball season. In the fall of 2015, Magadan became the hitting coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks, a title which he still holds today.

In June of 2010, Magadan joined former Alabama All-American and head coach Joe Sewell as the only Tide players to be inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame. In 2014, he was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Alabama Crimson Tide representatives Eli Gold and Major Ogilvie. In the fall of 2015, the .525 Club at the newly renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium was named in honor of his average during Magadan's historic 1983 season. Magadan was in attendance for the Crimson Tide's first ever alumni event, in which the room was officially opened.

1999 DICK HOWSER TROPHY FINALIST - ANDY PHILLIPS

Andy Phillips is one of the most decorated players in the history of Alabama baseball.

A member of coach Jim Wells' first signing class, Philips rewrote the Alabama record books and in the process took the Crimson Tide baseball program to new heights with three trips to the College World Series in his four-year career.

That impact was not limited to the Crimson Tide baseball family, as his talents were recognized nationally by writers, broadcasters and professional scouts.

A consensus All-America selection as a senior, Phillips was named the 1999 National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association District III Player of the Year and finished runner up to Baylor's Jason Jennings for the 1999 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association to the best player in college baseball.

Florida State's Marshall McDougal, Cal State Fullerton's Spencer Oborn and Rice's Mario Ramos also were finalists for the Howser Trophy, named for the former Florida State infielder and Kansas City Royals manager.

Phillips also was named first team All-American by the NCBWA as well as being a member of the 1999 NCBWA Super All-American squad.

In addition to the NCBWA honors, Phillips was named first team All-American by College Baseball Insider and was a third team All-America selection by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Demopolis, Ala., native wrapped up his Alabama career as the school record-holder in eight career statistical categories, including most games played (244), games started (224), at-bats (905), runs scored (222), total hits (322), home runs (61), RBI (224) and total bases (590). He also ranked second in career doubles (63) and triples (11), and was third in assists (537) and 10th in walks (86) when his career was complete.

As a senior in 1999, Phillips set the standard of excellence for Crimson Tide baseball. He played in 64 games and batted .398 (103-259) with 22 home runs and 66 RBI. He added 71 runs scored, 22 doubles, 30 walks and 16 stolen bases for an Alabama team that captured the SEC Tournament Championship and finished third at the College World Series.

Phillips also set Alabama single-season records for total bases (203) and collected the most home runs (22) and RBI (66) by a shortstop at Alabama.

The former Tide shortstop also set the SEC record with a 36-game hitting streak during his final season at Alabama, breaking the old standard of 33 games set by LSU second baseman Todd Walker (1993). During his record-setting hitting streak, Phillips batted .407 (66-162) with 17 home runs and 45 RBI.

In 1998, Phillips was named the Sporting News National Player of the Week (April 1, 1998), after hitting .500 (8-16) with six runs scored, three home runs and 11 RBI in wins over Southern Miss and Mississippi State.

Phillips was just as successful off the field, earning his degree from Alabama in 1999, while being an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is an accomplished singer. Twice during his career, Phillips sang the National Anthem prior to a Crimson Tide home game at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. A three-time All-SEC selection, Phillips also was named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team for his many hours of community service.

Following an 11-year professional baseball career, which included five seasons in Major League Baseball, Phillips returned to Alabama as the hitting and infield coach, beginning with the 2011 season and ending in 2016 after head coach Mitch Gaspard's retirement. His MLB debut came in 2004 for the New York Yankees, and he homered on the first pitch he saw as a Major League player. Phillips played for the Yankees from 2004-07, before playing his final season in the majors with the Cincinnati Reds in 2008. Prior to returning to Alabama, he played two seasons in the Nippon Professional League in Japan.

2002 JOHNNY BENCH AWARD - JEREMY BROWN

The most decorated catcher in University of Alabama baseball history, Jeremy Brown was named the winner of the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, presented annually by the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission to the nation's best catcher.

"The Greater Wichita Sports Commission would like to congratulate all of the award finalists and especially Jeremy Brown, the 2002 Johnny Bench National Collegiate Catcher of the Year," Bob Hanson, President and CEO of the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, said. "Jeremy represents The University of Alabama in a remarkable manner."

Brown edged out Southern California junior Alberto Concepcion and University of Houston junior Chris Snyder to win the 2002 award.

Brown said upon receiving the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, "I'd like to thank my family and my coaches for all of their support over the past four years. It's truly an honor to receive this award from the best catcher of all time, Mr. Johnny Bench."

It is the highest honor awarded to an Alabama baseball player since David Magadan earned the 1983 Golden Spikes Award, presented annually to the best player in college baseball. The Golden Spikes award is the baseball equivalent to college football's Heisman Trophy award.

Bench, a native of Oklahoma City, and Major League Baseball Hall of Famer, was on hand to present the award to Brown. Bench was the starting catcher for the Cincinnati Reds' back-to-back World Series championship teams in 1975 and 1976.

Former Los Angeles Dodger first baseman Steve Garvey delivered the keynote address to more than 350 people in attendance at the Grand Eagle Ballroom at the downtown Wichita Hyatt Regency hotel. The banquet recognizes the achievements and dedication of local youth, high school, college and professional coaches in the Wichita area. Alabama head coach Jim Wells was also in attendance to see his All-American catcher receive the award.

A two-year starter behind the plate for Alabama, Brown was a runner-up to Baylor's Kelly Shoppach in the 2001 Johnny Bench Award voting. Brown is one of five Southeastern Conference catchers to win the Johnny Bench Award, joining LSU's Brad Cresse, who won the inaugural award in 2000, Mississippi State's Ed Easley in 2007, Florida's Mike Zunino in 2012 and Ole Miss' Stuart Turner the following year in 2013.

A native of Hueytown, Ala., Brown appeared in 66 games for Alabama as a senior and hit a .320 average (70-219) with 11 home runs and 64 RBI. He also set the Alabama single-season record with 69 walks, surpassing the previous total of 66 walks held by Bret Elbin in 1983.

Brown made only one error for Alabama in his final 119 games at the Capstone. He set the Tide single-season record with a 1.000 fielding percentage in 2001 and made only one error in 2002.

Brown was second in the SEC with seven pickoffs and ranked among the league leaders by throwing out 43 percent of his attempted base stealers.

A first-round pick of the Oakland Athletics, Brown concluded his career at Alabama as the all-time leader for games played (251), games started (251), runs scored (244), walks (207) and putouts (1,660). He still remains as the only player in SEC history to collect 300 career hits (307) and 200 career walks (207).

Named a 2002 second team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, Brown also was a first team All-SEC pick for the second consecutive year. He was also chosen as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and was a finalist for the 2002 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce and Verizon.

2003 DISTRICT III PLAYER OF THE YEAR - BEAU HEAROD

Beau Hearod went where few University of Alabama players had gone before. The slugger from Jennings, La., had a phenomenal 2003 season and in the process led the Southeastern Conference in both home runs (20) and RBI (82) in his final campaign with the Crimson Tide.

A first team All-SEC selection, Hearod became the first Alabama player to lead the SEC in home runs since Doug Duke smacked a league-leading 27 four-baggers as a junior in 1986. Hearod became the fourth player in school history to lead the league in home runs, joining Stan Moss (7, 1968), Butch Hobson (13, 1973) and Duke (1986) as the league's home run champ. Hearod also was the first Crimson Tide slugger to lead the league in RBI since Duke's league-best 82 in 1986.

After putting up those staggering numbers during the rugged 62-game season, which included 34 games against SEC teams, Hearod was tabbed as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, marking the second consecutive year and the third time since the inception of the award in 1999 that an Alabama player was bestowed the top in District III.

Former Alabama catcher Jeremy Brown, a first-round selection by the Oakland Athletics in 2002 MLB Draft and the 2002 Johnny Bench award winner, was named the 2002 District III Player of the Year following an outstanding senior season. Andy Phillips, the school's all-time home runs leader, won the inaugural District III Player of the Year award in 1999 and was one of the three finalists for the prestigious Dick Howser Trophy, presented to the NCBWA Player of the Year.

Other 2003 district winners included Boston College pitcher Chris Lambert (District I), St. John's outfielder Mike Rozema (District II), South Carolina lefty David Marchbanks (District IV), Ohio State pitcher Scott Lewis (District V), Nebraska first baseman Matt Hooper (District VI), Tulane first baseman and left hand pitcher Michael Aubrey (District VII) Southern University shortstop Rickie Weeks (District VII), New Mexico first baseman Billy Belcher (District VIII) and Arizona State shortstop Dustin Pedroia (District IX).

From the ranks of these 10 District winners, Southern University's Rickie Weeks was named the winner of the 2003 Dick Howser Trophy.

As a senior, Hearod started all 62 games and batted .346 (80-231) with 20 home runs and 82 RBI. He was also named the Most Valuable Player of the 2003 SEC Tournament at the Hoover Met, leading the Crimson Tide to its second straight postseason title and sixth under coach Jim Wells.

Hearod ranked ninth nationally in home runs (20) and 17th nationally with 0.32 home runs per game. He was sixth in total RBI and ninth with 1.32 RBI per game. He also led the SEC and ranked 27th nationally with a whopping .719 slugging percentage.

In his three-year career with Alabama, Hearod played in 177 games and batted .327 (210-643) with 40 home runs and 191 RBI. He also totaled 141 runs scored, 43 doubles, five triples, 61 walks and a .595 career slugging mark.

He wrapped up his Alabama career with five grand slams, one shy of the school, SEC and NCAA record set by the Tide's Mike Pitisci in 1984.

Wade LeBlanc had a freshman season like no other in the 100-plus year history of The University of Alabama baseball program.

The talented freshman left-hander racked up just about every postseason award available as he became the first rookie in Crimson Tide baseball history to earn National and SEC Freshman of the Year honors.

LeBlanc was tabbed the 2004 National Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper after being named the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year at the conclusion of the regular season.

LeBlanc's turning point in the season was the back-to-back wins against No. 6 LSU and 10th-ranked Florida in early May. He beat LSU, 8-2, on May 1 in Baton Rouge and then shut out the high-powered Gators in Tuscaloosa on May 7, allowing only four hits and striking out nine batters.

"I guess the LSU and Florida games back-to-back really told me what kind of season I was having," LeBlanc said. "This whole season was crazy. I never thought I would have a year like this and be named National and SEC Freshman of the Year. This is a great honor."

LeBlanc finished his outstanding freshman season by setting Alabama freshman records for innings pitched (112.2), strikeouts (98) and complete games (8) while tying the Alabama freshman record with eight wins.

In 16 games, including 15 starts, LeBlanc posted an 8-4 record and 2.08 ERA. He worked 112.2 innings and allowed 87 hits, 37 runs and 26 earned runs, with 26 walks and 98 strikeouts. LeBlanc also threw eight complete games and pitched three shutouts in 2004.

In addition to his freshman records, LeBlanc also ranks among the school's top 10 single-season leaders in several categories. His eight complete games tied Gene Lary (1955) for second place on the school's single-season list. The three shutouts matched Mike Innes (1968) and Drew Blocker (1974) for third-place on the single-season shutout charts. LeBlanc's 112.2 innings pitched tied Dean Hayes (1983) for seventh place on the single-season innings, while the 98 strikeouts tied Jarrod Kingrey (1998) and Steve Shoemaker (1994) for 10th place in Alabama history.

LeBlanc was tabbed a third team All-American by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America. He was the only freshman named to the 2004 Baseball America All-America team. LeBlanc also was named to the 2004 SEC All-Freshman team and was a second team All-SEC selection as voted on by the league's 12 head coaches.

SEBaseball.com tabbed him as the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year as well as a first team All-SEC selection. He also was selected to the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-South Region team.

LeBlanc was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the second round of the 2006 MLB Amateur Draft. He made his Major League debut on Sept. 8, 2008 for the Padres. Through the 2011 season, LeBlanc had appeared in 54 games, 52 as a starter, with a 17-22 overall record in four years with the Padres.

He spent the 2012 season in the Miami Marlins organization. After starting the year in Triple-A, LeBlanc made 25 appearances with nine Major League starts. He was 2-5 with a 3.67 ERA in his first season with the Marlins. In 2013, LeBlanc started the season in the big leagues where he appeared in 13 games with seven starts for the Marlins. He was then picked up on waivers by Houston, where he made four relief appearances for the Astros.

In the 2014 offseason, LeBlanc signed a minor league contract with the Los Angeles Angels on Anaheim. He began the season in Triple-A Salt Lake, and eventually got the call-up to the Angels on May 25. He was designated for assignment by Los Angeles and picked up by the New York Yankees but was eventually designated for assignment once again. He returned to the Angles in the midst of a playoff race and spent the finality of the 2014 season in Los Angeles.

For his MLB career, LeBlanc was 21-33 with a 4.47 ERA (222 ER/446.2 IP), making 107 appearances with 71 starts while striking out 302 batters.

2009 SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR - KENT MATTHES

Alabama right fielder Kent Matthes wrapped up a remarkable senior season by winning Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors and being tabbed a consensus All-American. Matthes is the first Alabama player to win SEC Player of the Year honors since the league began presenting the award in 1993.

"Kent Matthes had a great year and deserves this honor," former Alabama head coach Jim Wells said. "It has been great to sit in the dugout and watch him do the things he has done this year. He has had a great year and put up some incredible numbers. You read sometimes about guys having years like this, but he usually isn't on your team. This year we have that player and it has been fun watching him on and off the field."

Matthes was also named first team All-American by every baseball publication, including the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), Rivals and PING.

"It is a great honor to be recognized by the best college baseball league with all the talented players we have in the SEC," Matthes said. "It is an honor to be named SEC Player of the Year and to be able to accomplish the feat as a senior. This has been an incredible season and I am happy to be a part of this team.

"I was looking to take advantage of my senior year and make the most of it," said Matthes. "I worked hard in the offseason with Dax (Norris), got hot early, hit a lot of home runs and they kept coming. I tried to stay focused on winning each game and not the stats."

The senior was named the 2009 NCBWA District III Player of the Year, was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and a member of the ABCA All-South Region team. The Orlando, Fla., native hit .358 with 28 home runs and 81 RBI for the Crimson Tide. He led the SEC in home runs, RBI, total bases (174) and slugging percentage (.883). He was also third in runs scored (65) and sixth in hitting.

Matthes set the Alabama single-season record with 28 home runs, which tied for the national home run lead with Middle Tennessee State's Bryce Brentz. Matthes is the fifth NCAA statistical national champion in school history. He broke the Alabama single-season home run record with his 28th home run against South Carolina on May 20 at the SEC Tournament. He slugged his 27th home run of the season in the Tide's regular-season finale at Auburn on May 16 to tie Doug Duke's record set in 1986.

The 2009 home run barrage from Matthes included four multi-home run games and one walkoff home run while 16 of his 28 home runs tied the game or gave Alabama the lead (10 go-ahead home runs). He also had nine game-winning RBI in 2009.

Matthes set the Alabama record with a home run in six straight games and twice was named National and SEC Player of the Week. He hit for the cycle on Feb. 24 against Nicholls State and followed with a walkoff 10th inning home run the next day.

Drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the fourth round of the 2009 MLB Amateur Draft, Matthes was named the 2011 California League's Most Valuable Player for the Class A Modesto Nuts after an outstanding season at the plate. He finished the 2011 season with a .334 average, 23 home runs, 39 doubles and 95 RBI.

Matthes spent the 2012 season in Double-A, playing for the Tulsa Drillers where he hit .214 with 17 home runs, 18 doubles and 40 RBI. In 2013, Matthes opened the year in Tulsa, before being called up to Triple-A Colorado Springs for the final 47 games of the season. With the Triple-A Sky Sox, Matthes hit .297 with 11 home runs and 31 RBI.

After being claimed off waivers by the Oakland A's, the former Tide standout spent 2014 split between Double-A Midland and Triple-A Sacramento where he hit .232 (92-396) with 26 doubles, 16 home runs and 72 RBI while adding 57 runs.

Jim Wells and Skip Bertman combined to win 12 SEC Tournament championships and lead all SEC coaches with six tournament titles each.

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY:

Alabama has compiled a 57-54 (.514) all-time SEC Tournament record, dating back to its first appearance in the 1950 SEC Playoffs, a best-of-five series win over Kentucky, the SEC Eastern Division champion. The Crimson Tide is 49-43 (.533) since the league moved to an SEC Tournament format in 1977.

In SEC Tournament games at the Hoover Met (formerly Regions Park), Alabama is 37-25 (.597) with four SEC postseason titles in 1996, 1999, 2002 and 2003.

The Crimson Tide is 7-1 in eight SEC Tournament championship games, winning the title against five different teams. Following a 4-3 loss to LSU in the 2010 SEC championship game, Alabama is 3-1 in the deciding game against the Tigers. Alabama defeated LSU to win the SEC Tournament championship in 1995, 1997 and 2002. The Tide also has championship game wins over Mississippi State (1993), Florida (1996), Arkansas (1999) and South Carolina (2002).

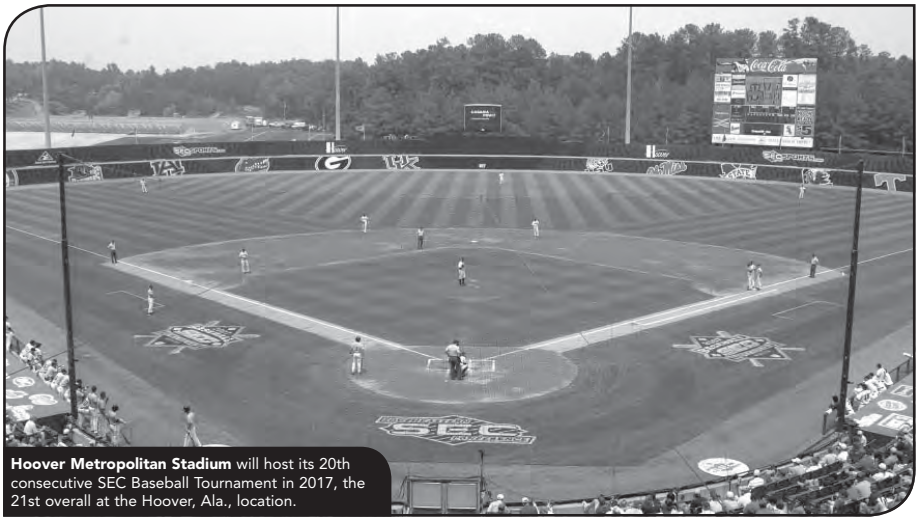
SEC BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament will be held at Hoover Metropolitan Stadium from May 23-28, 2017. This is the 20th consecutive year the tournament has been played in Hoover and the 21st time overall.

The 2017 SEC Baseball Tournament will host 12 teams for the third straight year, after increasing from 10 to 12 in 2013. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single-elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday, before returning to single-elimination play on Saturday and Sunday. A total of 17 games will be played over the six days.

The 12 teams will be seeded 1-12, with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another bye later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western divisions, plus 10 at-large bids, seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

The tournament began in 1977 with the first and second-place teams from the Eastern and Western divisions meeting at campus sites to determine the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. In 1986, the SEC abandoned divisional play and the top four teams in the league standings qualified for the postseason tournament at campus sites. The 1990 SEC Tournament was played at the Hoover Met, the first off-campus tournament in league history.



Hoover Metropolitan Stadium will host its 20th consecutive SEC Baseball Tournament in 2017, the 21st overall at the Hoover, Ala., location.

The format remained the same until the league expanded to 12 teams in 1992, adding Arkansas and South Carolina. In 1992, the league went back to divisional play and invited the top four teams from each division to the SEC Tournament at the Superdome in New Orleans.

The SEC instituted another change in 1993, as the league had two separate divisional tournaments over the next three years. The overall SEC champion and NCAA automatic qualifier was the team with the best conference combined winning percentage from the regular season and postseason tournaments. Alabama won the SEC Western Division tournament in Starkville in 1995, the first of three straight tournament titles for the Tide.

The 1996 and 1997 tournaments were eight-team events in Hoover and Columbus, Ga., respectively but those events introduced one-game play-ins. Prior to the expansion to 10 teams in 2012, an eight-team double-elimination format was used for 14 years (1998-2011).

Alabama is second all-time with seven SEC Tournament titles, most recently in 2003. LSU leads the way with 11 SEC Tournament championships, including back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010. Overall, nine of the 14 SEC teams have won at least one SEC Tournament crown since 1977.

After Rob Childress led Texas A&M to the tournament title last season, 20 different head coaches had won at least one SEC Tournament championship. Former Alabama head coach Jim Wells and former LSU coach Skip Bertman have the most all time with six championships, while former Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk won five tournament titles. Florida has the most coaches to win the SEC Tournament with four, including Jay Bergman (1981), Jack Rhine (1982), Joe Arnold (1984, 1988 and 1991) and Kevin O'Sullivan (2011, 2015).

Alabama has been involved in the two largest championship game crowds in tournament history. The Tide's 9-3 win over Arkansas in the 1999 SEC Championship game on May 23 drew 16,165 fans, the largest crowd in tournament history and second-largest crowd in Hoover Met annals. The Tide's 6-2 win over South Carolina on May 26, 2002, drew 13,367 fans, the second-largest for a title game in tournament lore.

Hoover Met seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate more than 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005, and finally a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $4.5 million renovation project. A new video scoreboard was added in 2008.

The SEC will keep its conference baseball tournament in suburban Birmingham for the next three years and could stretch its stay to five.

FORMAT AND SEEDING

The 12-team tournament will consist of two six-team brackets. The two bracket winners will play in a single championship game on Sunday. Seeding for the SEC Tournament is based on each team's winning percentage during the SEC regular season. The division champions shall be automatically seeded No. 1 and No. 2, based on winning percentage in conference competition. The rest shall be seeded No. 3 through No. 12 based on conference winning percentage. Once a team is seeded, it shall maintain that same seeded position throughout the tournament.

TIE-BREAKERS

Two-Team Tie

When two teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken):

1. Win-loss results of head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. If they are divisional opponents:
   a. Won-lost percentage within their division (over the 15-game SEC division schedule).
   b. Won-lost percentage of the two teams versus the No. 1 team in their division (and proceeding through the No. 6 team, if necessary).
3. If two teams are not divisional opponents:
   a. Win-loss record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed using common opponents only (and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary).
4. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more)

When three or more teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken).

Note: If the three tied teams have three different records against each other, they shall be seeded in best-percentage order. Otherwise, once the three-team tie is broken, the two-team tie-breaker will be used.

1. If all three teams are common opponents: Total won-lost percentage of games played among the tied teams.
2. Won-lost percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary, using common opponents only.
3. If three or more teams still are tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw.

CRIMSON TIDE SPORTS NETWORK

ON THE RADIO

Jim Carabin
General Manager, CTSN

Chris Stewart
Play-By-Play

Lee Tracey
Play-by-Play/Color

All the exciting action of Alabama baseball can be heard throughout the 2017 season on the Crimson Tide Sports Network.

The baseball network is a service of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing, which is a property of Learfield Communications. An industry leader for more than four decades, Learfield has a deep presence in the college athletics landscape nationwide. It manages the multimedia and sponsorship rights for 125 collegiate institutions, conferences and arenas, and supports athletic departments at all competitive levels as title sponsor of the prestigious Learfield Directors' Cup. Learfield also provides its collegiate partners access to professional concessions and ticket sales; licensing and trademark consulting; digital and social platform expertise; and venue and technology systems through its affiliated companies. For more information, visit learfield.com. Jim Carabin serves as CTSM's general manager.

For the 19th consecutive season, CTSM will carry the Crimson Tide baseball games on a state-wide network. The games also are available on the internet and select Southeastern Conference games will be aired on XM Satellite Radio. The network's flagship stations are in Birmingham and Tuscaloosa. Birmingham affiliates include WJOX-FM (94.5) and WJOX-AM (690). The Tuscaloosa affiliate is WDGM-FM 102.9.

Alabama baseball is also the topic of conversation each Monday night from 6-7 p.m. on the popular weekly call-in show "Hey, Coach!" Stewart hosts the program and chats with head coach Greg Goff and Alabama players each Monday night throughout the season. The show airs live from Bob's Victory Grill in Tuscaloosa. Fans can join the program by calling toll free (877) 202.2262.

The Crimson Tide's unique 30-minute weekly sports magazine television program, "TIDETV This Week," shows highlights, interviews and previews on the Crimson Tide baseball team all season.

Chris Stewart and Lee Tracey will call the exciting action of Alabama baseball this season on the 30-plus station network.

A veteran play-by-play voice, Stewart enters his 18th season on the Tide baseball broadcasts. He is a four-time (2004, 2007, 2008 and 2009) Alabama Sportscaster of the Year recipient by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA).

Stewart is in his 29th year in broadcasting, with the 2016-17 men's basketball season being his 15th as the play-by-play announcer for the Crimson Tide Sports Network. In addition to his role as the voice of Crimson Tide basketball, Stewart also serves as the sideline reporter for CTSN's radio coverage of Crimson Tide football and as the television host of "The Nick Saban Show".

Prior to taking over the Alabama basketball play-by-play job, the Fairfield, Ala., native spent eight seasons as the radio announcer for Birmingham Southern College.

Stewart has done additional work for CSS, ESPN Regional, and Fox Sports South.

A 1992 graduate of the University of Montevallo, Stewart was honored with the school's 2009 Alumni Achievement Award. He is married to the former Christy Carmichael and has three children – Anne, Parker and Hudson.

Lee Tracey, a veteran sports broadcaster in Alabama, returns for his seventh season calling the action for the Alabama baseball team for CTSN.

Prior to the 2011 season, Tracey provided play-by-play for Alabama baseball two different times in the past - once in the late 1980s and again from 1992-94. He also was the radio voice of Alabama women's basketball from 1992-94.

Tracey was the producer on Alabama football broadcasts for the Crimson Tide Sports Network from 1987-90 and was the sports anchor/director for WCFT-TV in Tuscaloosa from 1994-96.

Currently, Tracey is the owner and president of TOPsports, a company he founded in 1996. TOPsports covers all Tuscaloosa area sports, including University of Alabama athletics and local high schools.
